INTRODUCTION

The Criminal Justice program examines topics including crime, offenders, victims, the criminal justice system and other forms of social sanctions and controls. Our students learn about historical and contemporary explanations of crime, and become familiar with research literature on criminal justice agencies such as police, courts and corrections. Students are challenged to think critically about key issues confronting the criminal justice system, the strengths and limits of possible reforms, and the ethical dilemmas facing criminal justice practitioners.

Graduates may find career opportunities in policing and law enforcement, institutional, community or youth corrections, victim services, public policy, criminal justice or social welfare programming, evaluation and research. The program also provides a strong background for those who wish to pursue graduate studies and law school.

Example of a three year degree program in Criminal Justice:

With a bit of foresight, a student will be able to plan a progressive education that will also take advantage of the liberal arts offering available at the University of Winnipeg. The following is a possible route for students; however it is to be considered only as an example. Individual programs may differ substantially once core courses are completed. The proposed program actually exceeds the required 36 hours.
