The Centre for Rupert's Land Studies (CRLS) is unique in its focus on Rupert's Land, the vast Hudson Bay watershed region claimed by the Hudson's Bay Company from 1670 to 1870, and its borderlands. We foster interdisciplinary research and conversation among all who share an interest in the history and peoples of the Hudson Bay watershed, with particular emphasis on Indigenous and fur trade history and the immense resources of the Hudson's Bay Company Archives, nearby. Since 1984, the Centre has been a nexus for sharing information, new research, and perspectives through three major means:

- Biennial Colloquiums---informal conferences that have met in a wide range of settings linked to Indigenous people and the fur trade.
- Publication of monographs, Colloquium proceedings, and Indigenous oral history materials, for example, the stories of Louis Bird at www.ourvoices.ca. The Rupert's Land Record Society series of documentary volumes, co-published with McGill-Queen's University Press, offers carefully researched original source materials for scholars, students, and communities. Subscribing members receive our biannual Rupert's Land Newsletter.
- Research assistance and networking, linking CRLS members and others across North America and abroad who have common interests and questions. We also maintain a roster of locally available assistants qualified to help with archival and other research.

The Centre offers annually the C. Richard Harington Fellowship to a student pursuing advanced studies in its areas of interest. It is also home to a small research facility and to the Elizabeth B. Losey Fur Trade Library of about 1000 works, many of them rare and out of print, and other resources.

It was created to support theoretical physics research in Manitoba. It has carried out this mandate by encouraging collaboration between members of the Institute, by financially supporting expert seminars in the research areas of concern, and by financially supporting the long-term visits of internationally respected scientists to the Institute to facilitate collaboration between these scientists and Institute members. The permanent members of the Institute include all theorists in the Physics Departments at The University of Winnipeg and The University of Manitoba, as well as theorists from Brandon University.

o. Institute of Urban Studies

The Institute of Urban Studies (IUS) is an independent research centre within The University of Winnipeg. Since 1969, the IUS has functioned as both an academic and applied research centre committed to exploring urban issues in a broad, non-partisan manner. Originally focused on the challenges and resiliency of the inner city, the Institute's research now encompasses the social, physical, and economic well-being of Canadian communities. The IUS frequently partners with governments, community-based and non-profit organizations, and other stakeholders in its work. Its mandate also includes community outreach and education; and mentoring new scholars. Since 1992, the IUS has produced The Canadian Journal of Urban Research, a free multidisciplinary scholarly journal that publishes articles on issues relevant to urban studies. The IUS has worked with hundreds of students, community leaders, and scholars to produce more than 500 research reports, books, and other publications. This collection of work is available on the IUS's website (<http://www.uwinnipeg.ca/ius/>). To assist students, faculty, and community members engaged in urban research, the IUS operates a lending library located with our offices, on the 3rd floor of the Richardson College for the Environment at 599 Portage Avenue.
