BACHELOR OF ARTS DEGREE WITH A MAJOR IN EAST ASIAN LANGUAGES AND CULTURES

Overview

In the East Asian Languages and Cultures (EALC) program, students can learn Chinese, Japanese, and Korean, as well as take an in-depth and multi-disciplinary look at the culture, history and literature of East Asia. Coursework in the EALC Program will enable students to understand and appreciate the impact that the traditional East Asian cultures have on the global stage today. This is useful for those interested in education, advising, or government work.

"The East Asian Languages and Cultures Program opened me up to new perspectives of the world, engaged me to think globally, and prepared me for meeting the language and cultural challenges associated with my work as a cultural ambassador in Japan."

- Hyewon Park, BA (East Asian Languages and Culture), Coordinator of International Relations, JET Programme (Niigata, Japan)
