

CAREER PATHFINDERS

BACHELOR OF ARTS DEGREE WITH A MAJOR IN

POLITICAL SCIENCE

Overview

The study of Political Science examines power and authority at formal and informal levels – global/international, regional, national, and local. The academic discipline examines the material and non-material (historical, social, ideological, and ideational) forces that shape global/international, regional, national, and local politics. Political Science graduates enter such professional fields as public service, the legal profession, business administration, political organizations, and teaching.

“I feel I was well prepared at UWinnipeg, and my education was genuinely applicable to my career. I had the great fortune to have well-versed and intellectually rigorous professors who were accessible and knew me by name.”

- Laura Lumsden, BA (Honours) Political Science, Foreign Service Officer, posted to the Embassy of Canada in Washington, D.C. .

Job Titles

- | | |
|--|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Politician (NOC 00010) • Teacher (NOC 41221) • University Professor/Academic (NOC 41200) • Lawyer (NOC 41101) • Advocate (NOC 41300) • Political Columnist (NOC 51113) • Journalist (NOC 51113) • Research Analyst • Member of Canada’s Diplomatic and Foreign Services • Government Worker (NOC 41407) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • City Planner (NOC 21202) • Non-Government Organization Worker (NOC 41409) • Police Officer (NOC 40040) • Community Activist (NOC 41403) • Constituency Officer Worker (NOC 12100) • Advertising, Marketing and Public Relations (NOC 11202) • Financial Officer (NOC 12200) • Social Policy Researcher, Consultant and Program Officer (NOC 41403) ^{1,2} |
|--|--|

1 The University of Winnipeg. “Career Opportunities for Political Science Students”. 1 April 2020, <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/political-science/career-opp.html>

2 Government of Canada. “Political Science and Government, General (45.1001), Bachelor’s degree”. Job Bank, 31 March 2020, <https://www.jobbank.gc.ca/studentdashboard/45.1001/LOS05>

Work Settings

- Constituency office
- School
- Government office
- Private law practice
- Non-profit organization
- Newspaper office
- Magazine office
- Parliament

Skills and Characteristics

- Knowledge of the political system
- Critical thinking
- Professionalism
- Oral and written communication skills
- Persuasion skills
- Debate skills
- Research skills
- Conflict resolution skills
- Leadership skills

Professional Associations and Other Links

- University of Winnipeg Politics Students Society <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/political-science/psss.html>
- Canadian Political Science Association <https://www.cpsa-acsp.ca/>
- International Political Science Association <https://www.ipsa.org/profile/canadian-political-science-association>
- Prairie Political Science Association <https://www.prairiepsa.com/>

This document is intended to provide a starting point for your career research. For more information about UWinnipeg's Political Science program, visit the Department of Political Science website and the Political Science Fact Sheet.

Students are encouraged to schedule an appointment with an Academic and Career Advisor for assistance with career planning.
