

Art Director

Are you...

Obsessed with ideas?

Insatiably curious about the world we live in?

Driven by the notion of “what if?”

Do you...

Strive to make the world a better place? Or, if not better, than at least more aesthetically pleasing?

Push boundaries in all mediums?

Like answering a series of questions?

Well then...

We are LMNO (a forward-thinking, data-driven, kick-ass creative agency) and we are looking for an Art Director (a forward-thinking, talented, genuine great person) to join our Creative team.

This is what we are looking for...

You not only offer art direction and design skills, but you are also a conceptual thinker full of big ideas, with the ability and desire to help develop award-winning creative work.

You are all about brainstorming with a team, but also work well on your own, because you are a great communicator who’s not afraid to ask questions to get all the information to tackle any job head on.

You thrive in a fast-paced work environment and are always up for a challenge (and to be challenged), not just visually, but through words and strategy too.

Your natural curiosity and connectedness with culture and trends give you a leg up when crafting your creative.

You have experience as an Art Director.

And you love working with cool people and clients.

Is this you (we really hope so)?

If so, please submit your resume and portfolio with at least 5 work samples by Friday, April 19 to careers@meetlmno.com, attention Creative Director, Traci Deck.

*A couple things to note:

This is an in-house position at our office in Saskatoon, SK.

Only successful candidates will be contacted.
