

Creative Writer

LMNO is looking for an experienced Writer/Creative Thinker (who loves coming up with out of the box ideas) to join our team.

Who is LMNO?

We are a forward-thinking, data-driven, kick-ass creative agency. Through our focus on custom solutions to complex, strange, and sometimes puzzling challenges, we have carved a name for ourselves in areas including advertising, strategy, consulting, content strategy and development, as well as personal and corporate branding.

We are bold and creative.

We push boundaries while creating cool stuff on the daily.

And most importantly, we are made up of an awesome team who leave our egos at the door (of our great space, located in the heart of Saskatoon).

Who are you?

First and foremost, you are a great human who is passionate about creating great work.

You not only offer mad writing skills (writing is just one piece of the puzzle), but you are also a conceptual thinker full of big ideas, with the ability and desire to help develop award-winning creative work.

You are all about brainstorming with a team, but you also work well on your own, because you are a great communicator who's not afraid to ask questions to get all the information to tackle any job head on.

You thrive in a fast-paced work environment and are always up for a challenge (and to be challenged), not just in your writing, but visually and strategically too.

Your natural curiosity and connectedness with culture and trends give you a leg up when crafting your creative.

You have experience in a creative writing position.

And you love working with cool people and clients.

Is this you (we really hope so)?

If so, please submit your resume and portfolio with at least 5 work samples by Friday, April 19 to careers@meetlmno.com, attention Creative Director, Traci Deck.

*A couple things to note:

This is an in-house position at our office in Saskatoon, SK.

Only successful candidates will be contacted.
