

THE UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG
FACULTY OF EDUCATION

Inclusive Education

The Faculty of Education at the University of Winnipeg offers a 5-year integrated program and a two-year after-degree stream at the undergraduate level, and a Post-Baccalaureate Diploma In Education for in-service teachers. In keeping with its mandate, the Faculty offers an interdisciplinary approach to teacher education that focuses on the preparation of teachers to meet the needs of urban and inner-city students. The Faculty of Education invites applications from qualified applicants for a tenure track position at the rank of Assistant Professor. Subject to final budgetary approval, this appointment is effective July 1, 2017. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience. Applicants must have a commitment to teaching and community service.

This position is in the area of inclusive education. The successful candidate should hold a Ph.D. and have a strong background in theory and research in the area, including knowledge of special needs programming, universal design, gifted education, provincial funding, and strength-based approaches for marginalized, relationship-resistant children and youth. It is expected that applicants will also have had extensive experience in schools working directly with children with special needs (in alternative classroom settings, and in resource, counselling, or administrative roles). Experience networking and consulting with teachers across school divisions in Winnipeg and teaching experience at the post-secondary level would also be assets.

The University of Winnipeg is an urban, primarily undergraduate institution which seeks to appreciate, foster, and promote values of human dignity and employment equity; welcomes diversity in the workplace, and encourages applications from all qualified individuals including women, members of racialized communities, indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity. In accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, first preference must be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

Interested candidates should send a curriculum vitae, including the names of three references, via email (Attn. Tara: t.christianson@uwinnipeg.ca) by January 23, 2017 to Dr. John Anchan, Acting Dean, Faculty of Education, The University of Winnipeg, 515 Portage Avenue, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, R3B 2E9). Additional information about The University of Winnipeg is available at www.uwinnipeg.ca.