

THE UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG

Department of Business & Administration

The Department of Business & Administration in the Faculty of Business & Economics at The University of Winnipeg invites applications for 12 month term position(s) in the following areas: Operations Management and Innovation Technology and General Business – including Entrepreneurship, Strategy and Ethics. Expected start date is July 1, 2017. Salary will be competitive, commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Candidates require some combination of the following qualifications: a PhD (completed or near completion) or an MBA, MSc or other appropriately related Master's Degree with professional experience. Selection will be based on potential and/or demonstrated strength in teaching, service and research (depending on qualifications). Teaching responsibilities may include online course development and delivery. Person-culture fit within the Department also is important. We seek individuals committed to meaningful contribution to Departmental governance, respectful collaboration within and across the University, and constructive problem-solving.

The Department of Business and Administration (<http://busandadmin.uwinnipeg.ca/>) is among the largest in the University. It offers both a 3-year and 4-year Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) degree based on an innovative interdisciplinary approach to business education emphasizing social and ethical responsibility. The 4-year BBA provides concentration options, and Accounting the largest of these.

Located in the heart of Treaty 1 Territory and the traditional homelands of the Metis Nation, the University of Winnipeg is a diverse, multicultural urban campus committed to academic excellence, community engagement, social and environmental sustainability. With a faculty and staff of approximately 1,000 and more than 14,000 learners, The University of Winnipeg combines a strong tradition of outstanding scholarship in teaching, research, and creative work with a unique sense of engagement with its community partners.

Please submit your application electronically to bus-recruitment@uwinnipeg.ca with BUS-2017 Term position in the subject line. Applications should include a cover letter, curriculum vitae, statement of research interests, statement of teaching philosophy, evidence of teaching effectiveness, evidence of degrees or designations (photocopies are acceptable), and three letters of reference. For further information, contact Dr. David Duval, DPC (Department Personnel Committee) Chair, d.duval@uwinnipeg.ca or Professor Rosalie Harms, Department Chair, Department of Business and Administration at r.harms@uwinnipeg.ca.

The University of Winnipeg is committed to employment equity, welcomes diversity in the workplace, and encourages applications from all qualified individuals including women, members of racialized communities, Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity. In accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, first preference must be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

Review of applications will begin March 24, 2017 and continue until the position is filled. We appreciate all applicants' interest but please note that only short-listed candidates will be contacted.