

---

Please note that, while students may be eligible for acceptance into the program from the perspective of academic standards, only those whose studies can be supported adequately with existing Faculty resources may be admitted. See The Faculty of Theology Calendar for details.

Please indicate your proposed area of concentration:

- Peace and Justice Studies
- Biblical Studies
- Theology and Church History
- Pastoral Theology

REGISTRATION

Course registration forms are available from The University of Winnipeg, Faculty of Theology 1B01, <http://theology.uwinnipeg.ca> (or by mail).

REFERENCES

Two confidential letters of reference must be submitted. They should be from two former professors, OR one professor and one professional colleague or supervisor. These letters must be received by the department in envelopes that have been sealed and endorsed by the issuing referees.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

Applicants are required to submit a brief letter of intent. This letter should reflect on your preparation for graduate theological studies and what you hope to learn at the Faculty of Theology. (no longer than two typed pages)

I declare that all statements made with respect to this application are true and complete. I agree, if admitted, to comply with the regulations of The University of Winnipeg, Faculty of Theology.
