INTRODUCTION

The Department of Modern Languages and Literatures offers a variety of courses and programming, including the 3-year BA (in French, in German, and in Spanish), the 4-year BA (in French and in German), and the Honours BA (in French).

Students can begin study of any of our languages without previous knowledge. Departmental advisors are available to assist students in the selection of their courses, and to ensure correct placement, students are asked to consult an advisor when registering for the first time in one of our courses. Students can study language, linguistics and literature in a variety of courses at different levels.

In addition to registering in our on-campus programs, students in French Studies and German Studies can benefit from study-abroad programs at the Université de Bordeaux 3 in France and at the Universität Bamberg in Germany.

For specific information about courses and programs in French Studies, German Studies, Italian Studies and Spanish Studies, please consult the appropriate calendar sections.
