- ▶ Advocating & Campaigning Effectively
- ▶ Networking Locally, Nationally and Internationally

Practicum links for community organizations

ACT wants to facilitate connections in the community. If your organization has practicum learning opportunities to share with educators and students, we can help you pass along the details.

Practicum Links for Educators

ACT can help publicize your practicum course offering, so keep us informed of your current offerings and future plans.

Who and what is ACT?

We are a group of individuals from all walks of life, who have come together to work for social justice and human rights.

We work in community organizations, political systems, faith settings, colleges and universities, and other educational settings.

We believe in positive social change led by individuals who think for themselves and take responsibility for transforming local and global communities.

A Centre for Transformation

Transforming Outrage into Action

With ACT you can ...

 Connect with other individuals and organizations who share your social justice concerns.

 Share your knowledge, skills and experiences with others

 Learn and practice new skills

 Take action for positive social change

We welcome groups and individuals from diverse backgrounds to participate in:

- ▶ Activist Retreats and Workshops
- ▶ Innovative Courses on Social Activism
- ▶ Practicum Learning Opportunities
- ▶ Networking and Research

Activist Retreats and Workshops

ACT offers workshops based on requests from community groups and individuals. Potential topics include human rights, popular theatre, global citizenship, leadership and advocacy. Participants share, learn and practice the skills required to build healthy organizations, nurture their spirits and engage in creative campaigning.

Innovative Courses on Social Activism

These will be interactive, learner-centred university courses that seek to empower students to understand and better confront social injustice and inequality. Students will be involved in defining their learning goals and shaping the course materials.

"Activism is my rent for living on this planet."
- Alice Walker

Practicum Courses

ACT supports the development of practicum opportunities that allow students to work in community-based organizations as part of their academic program.

Networking and Research

ACT connects groups and individuals to resources and information which will enhance their activist efforts.

ACT today! Join us. Get more information. Participate. Register for a course. Suggest a workshop. Make connections!
