

Nomination Form:
Bonnycastle Lecture Series / Elizabeth Laird Lecture Series

SUBMISSION DATE: _____

NOMINATION FOR:

Bonnycastle Lecture Series

Established in 1969 in memory of Richard H.G. Bonnycastle, by his wife and son. Mr. Bonnycastle was a publisher, former Chair of the Winnipeg Metropolitan Council, and the University of Winnipeg's first Chancellor. The lecture usually focuses on an area of special interest to Mr. Bonnycastle - the economic, social, and cultural life of cities.

Elizabeth Laird Lecture Series

Established in 1971 by a bequest in Elizabeth Rebecca Laird's will "to establish lecture funds for the purpose of providing occasional public lectures in the field of science or social studies to be given by lecturers from some other part or section of Canada." Dr. Laird, who completed her PhD in 1901, was a pioneer in the field of science. Her bequest ensures that students, faculty, and community members at the University of Winnipeg and six other Canadian institutions can engage in a lively scientific debate for years to come.

Nominations must include this form, a detailed letter, and additional supporting materials, addressing each of the selection criteria:

1. The rationale for the selection of this person as a participant in the lecture series (e.g., stature, accomplishments, recognition, proposed topic);
2. A curriculum vitae for the proposed lecturer (maximum 5 pages; alternatively, a summary);
3. An indication of whether the proposed speaker has presented at UWinnipeg before, and when;
4. An indication of whether the lecture would/could be associated with any other event on campus/in the city (e.g., conference, ceremony);
5. A list of other activities/lectures the visitor might provide on campus while here (e.g., student or departmental engagement/class presentations or other). Special consideration will be given to nominations with these added-value opportunities;
6. Provide possible date(s) for the lecture (preferably when fall/winter classes are in session).
7. A proposed budget for the event including travel, meals, and accommodations. Please indicate any possible additional sources of funding to support the event (e.g. departmental/faculty funds, fundraising, donations, partnerships).

*A brief summary of the event (no more than a half page) is to be submitted within two months of it taking place. The brief should include information such as (but not limited to) when, where, attendance, associated activities/meetings/discussions with students or faculty, etc.
