The Class of 1967 is planning to reunite and celebrate their 50th anniversary since graduating from United College.

Details are still to be finalized as far as the reunion events are concerned but the proposed reunion will take place during The University of Winnipeg's annual Homecoming Weekend; September 14-17.

Invitation packages, including event and registration information, will be forthcoming.

There will also be several events taking place during the weekend to help celebrate The University of Winnipeg's 50-year anniversary.
