A wonderful idea came out of an email from Bob Johnstone in Australia.

His suggestion was for any of our class that cannot attend to send us, electronically, a current photo and a few words about where life's path has taken them. These photos and mini bios may be put into a book or on a bulletin board so that everyone can peruse them. Also, include you current email address in case someone wants to make contact with you.

Great idea from "Down Under" to make the weekend even better!!
