Rooted in Relations* Exhibition - Recommended Readings

The following is a short list of resources to provide some additional context for the Rooted in Relations exhibition which is on view at the University of Winnipeg's campus art gallery, Gallery 1C03, from June 2 until August 1, 2025. Rooted in Relations is co-curated by Indigenous and non-Indigenous students of UWinnipeg's Indigenous Theory and Curatorial Practices course (GENG-7820/HIST-4833), taught by Associate Professor, History of Art, Dr. Cathy Mattes. The exhibition reflects the core principles and teachings of the course which includes continuous learning, engagement with Indigenous Knowledge Systems, and decolonial practices.

This list was prepared in June 2025 by Gallery 1C03's Art Gallery Education and Collections Intern Saskia Meuwese, with input from Gallery Director/Curator Jennifer Gibson. Sources for Simon Tookoome have been provided by Margaret Firlotte, one of the exhibit's student co-curators.

Several resources discuss the artists. Others discuss themes of interconnection, kinship, community, and relations that are centred within Rooted in Relations. It is our hope that consulting these resources will help expand your knowledge before or after visiting Rooted in Relations. The list is by no means exhaustive; rather, it is a starting point for exploration.
