

The Department of Criminal Justice Presents:

Criminal Justice and Criminology Day

Wednesday, MARCH 29, 2017, 9:00am – 4:30pm

Room 2M70

The day will feature presentations and panels highlighting the research of Criminal Justice Honours students, and justice-related work beyond the university.

9am-11:45am - Honours Theses Presentations

9am-10:15am - Brendan Roziere "Police Militarization and Normalization in Canada: An Analysis of Canadian Paramilitary Units" // Jantje van de Weetering "The Power of the Powerful: Social Class and other Factors Influencing Police Investigation and Public Perceptions of White-Collar Crime" // Brice Beirnes "Social Construction and Claims-Making Rhetoric: Racial Profiling, Under-Policing and Race Based Data in Canada" // Raissa Watkin "Risk, Precautionary Logic and the Expansion of Security Measures: Dissecting Bill C-51 and the Threats to our Liberty"

10:30am-11:45am - Christopher Jackson "An Acceptable Form of Violence: The Practice of Auricular Acupuncture in Correctional Environments" // Ernesto Castillo "Working Toward Legitimacy and Procedural Justice in Corrections" // Michael Lorange "Popular Criminology and Police Films: The Representation of Canadian Police in Film from 1900-2010" // Courtney Tymko "The Exclusionary Tactic of the Safer Communities and Neighbourhoods Act and its Implications"

1:00pm-2:00pm - Responses to the Provincial Remand Crisis

Tracy Booth, long term advocate // Zilla Jones, Defense lawyer // Jon Benson, Justice for Errol Greene // Michael Weinrath, Department of Criminal Justice, University of Winnipeg

2:15pm-3:15pm - Community responses to policing strategies

James Favel, Bear Clan Patrol // Shauna Fontaine, Co-chair, Indigenous Council on Policing and Crime Prevention, Winnipeg Police Board // Lin Howes, Spence Neighbourhood Association // Fadi Ennab, Multicultural Wellness Program, Mount Carmel Clinic

3:30pm-4:30pm - Deconstructing myths: sex work, feminist pornography, and public health Members of the Sex Workers of Winnipeg Action Coalition (SWWAC)