

The UW Department of Criminal Justice, Critical Perspectives: Criminology / Social Justice (Ottawa & Carleton), and the UW Centre for Interdisciplinary Justice Studies present:

PLACING JUSTICE:

Critical Perspectives on Space, Justice, Law and Order

Monday, May 9 to Wednesday May 11, 2016

A free and inclusive conference featuring presentations and panels highlighting issues of place, space, and justice.

See <http://www.cijs.ca> or email k.walby@uwinnipeg.ca or cijswinnipeg@gmail.com for program and general information.

In addition to a variety of thematic sessions, artistic exhibits and panels on space, place and justice, we are also pleased to welcome our distinguished featured speakers:

- *George Pavlich (Alberta, Law and Sociology): “Accusers and the Accused at Thresholds to Criminal Justice” May 9, 11am, Convocation Hall
- *Randy K. Lippert (Windsor, Sociology and Criminology): “Condo Law, Governance and Spaces of Control in Toronto and NY City” May 9, 1pm, 2M70
- *Mark Weber (DePaul, Law): “Disability, Space and Law: Canada and the United States Compared” May 9, 6pm, Convocation Hall
- *Elaine Craig (Dalhousie, Schulich School of Law): “The Sexual Assault Trial as a Space of Ritualized Hierarchy” May 10, 10:10am, 2M70
- *Nicholas Blomley (Simon Fraser, Geography): “Doing Justice to Space: Legal Geographies, Rights, and Power” May 10, 1:30pm, 2M70
- *Marie-Eve Sylvestre (Ottawa, Law): “The Use of Liminal Spaces, Fines and Red Zones on Marginalized Peoples” May 10, 3:45pm, 2M70

We wish to thank our sponsors: the CIJS; the Justice Research Institute; SSHRC; the Manitoba Law Foundation; Dean of Arts; University of Winnipeg AVP Research and Innovation Office; Chancellor's Research Chair program; University of Winnipeg Departments of History, Urban and Inner City Studies, Religion and Culture, Women's & Gender Studies, Sociology, Geography; and the University of Winnipeg Criminal Justice Students' Association.