

Webinar

8/26/21 12 – 1:45 PM EDT

Global College

Black Lives Matter: Structural Racism, Bigotry; and Inclusion

Panelists

Afua Cooper is a professor of Black Studies in the Faculty of Arts and Social Science at Dalhousie University. She is also the Director of the Black People's History of Canada Project, and holds a Killam Research Chair. Afua was recently appointed the Canadian UNESCO representative for the UN's Slave Route Project.

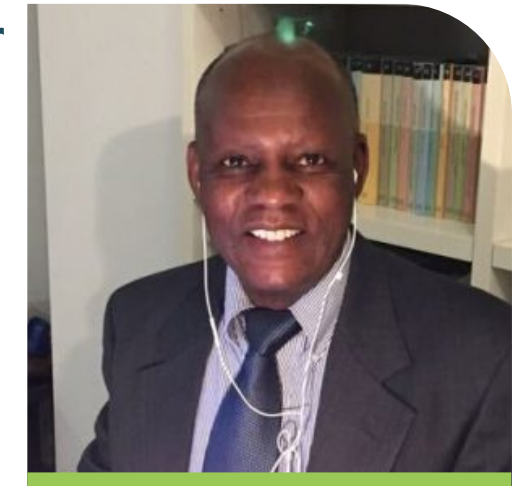

Dr Samukele Hadebe is currently a visiting fellow at the Chris Hani Institute, Johannesburg, researching on worker education and labor issues. He was the Director of the Centre for Public Engagement after a stint as a senior civil servant, and he taught in the Department of African Languages and Literature, University of Zimbabwe.

Dr. Adam Muller is Director of the Peace and Conflict Studies graduate programs at the University of Manitoba, Canada, and a founding member of the Global Consortium On Bigotry and Hate. He researches and teaches on the artistic representation of genocide, war, and human rights.

Moderator

Eliakim M. Sibanda is a globally acclaimed advocate for human rights, peace, and justice. He has hosted Black History Month at UWinnipeg and brought many gifted scholars to campus, enriching the campus community and promoting cross-cultural understanding. He has also been a visiting professor and was an invited speaker to three continents, including Africa.

Register Here

Any questions ahead of the event can be directed to e.sibanda@uwinnipeg.ca