Welcome! The University of Winnipeg offers a variety of financial support to assist you with funding your post-secondary education. We have over 700 awards to assist students from all majors, academic levels and financial need. Take some time and explore our opportunities – you might be the recipient we are looking for.

The Awards Handbook contains descriptions for all active awards at The University of Winnipeg, including its Schools and Colleges. All awards at the University are governed by the Senate Student Services Committee. Awards are created from funds donated by friends, external partners and those interested in helping students succeed and reach their full potential.

The University of Winnipeg Foundation

The University of Winnipeg Foundation is a registered and incorporated charitable public foundation dedicated to fundraising and asset stewardship in support of The University of Winnipeg’s mission. With the help of generous donors, the Foundation is building a legacy for the University, to enable it to better meet the needs, inspire the dreams of students, and create limitless possibilities for the future.

Manitoba Scholarships and Bursaries Initiative (MSBI)

The Government of Manitoba provides matching funds for donations made to universities and colleges through its Manitoba Scholarships and Bursaries Initiative (MSBI). MSBI matching grants are used to provide direct scholarship and bursary assistance to students, and to supplement endowments for both new and existing awards.

Disbursement of Award Amounts

Once a student is selected for an award, these are the steps you can expect:

- All awards are applied to the Student Account at the University
- Award amounts can be viewed online through WebAdvisor
- All awards are applied to outstanding balances, including Housing
- If this award creates a credit balance, a refund cheque will be mailed after the course drop deadlines have passed
- All internal awards (with the exception of bursaries) are printed on the recipient’s official transcript
- Reductions in course load or complete withdrawal from the University may result in all or a portion of the award being reversed

Automatic Awards

Some awards are given to students automatically based on their academic performance, without the necessity of an application. These include the Special Entrance Scholarship, the Academic Proficiency Scholarship and the majority of the Departmental Awards. Sit back and relax, we will do all the work for you.

Contact Us

If you have further questions about any of the information listed in this Awards Handbook, or have general questions about accessing financial assistance, please email Awards and Financial Aid at awards@uwinnipeg.ca, call 204-779-UWIN (8946), or visit us in 1C22 (Centennial Hall).
Application-Required Awards

Some awards require an application in order to be considered. These awards are identified in the Awards Handbook with an asterisk symbol (*). These are awards that ask for things like extra-curricular activities, involvement in the community and reference letters. All applications and deadlines are listed online. Please visit the Awards and Financial Aid website for more information.

General Award Conditions

There are some general award conditions that all students should be aware of, before you start your search. Please take a moment and become familiar with these guidelines:

A. All awards listed are subject to change or cancellation without notice.
B. All awards are equally available to part-time and full-time students, unless otherwise stated.
C. All awards are equally available to domestic and international students, unless otherwise stated.
D. All awards must be claimed in the academic year in which they are offered.
E. “Year Level” is determined the following way:
   - First Year: completed less than 30 credit hours
   - Second Year: completed 30 to 59 credit hours
   - Third Year: completed 60 to 89 credit hours
   - Fourth Year: completed 90 to 119 credit hours
   - Fifth/Final Year: enrolled in the last few credits needed to complete your degree and you expect to graduate in October or June of the current year
F. “Social Science” includes the disciplines of Anthropology, Economics, Geography (human and regional), Politics, Psychology, and Sociology.
G. “Humanities” includes the disciplines of Aboriginal Languages, Classics, East Asian Languages and Cultures, English, French Studies, German Studies, History, Italian Studies, Kinesiology, Music, Philosophy, Religious and Culture, Rhetoric, Writing Communications, Spanish Studies, Theatre and Film, and Women’s and Gender Studies.
H. To qualify for awards that require a specific major, students must have declared their major.
I. The University of Winnipeg will not administer any new awards that discriminate on the basis of race, creed, political belief, colour, ethnic or national origin, sex, sexual orientation, or age. Exceptions to these guidelines will be considered by the Senate Student Services Committee in accordance with the “Special Programs” provision of the Manitoba Human Rights Commission, which permits forms of assistance whose purpose is to address the needs of disadvantaged groups or individuals.
J. Students in receipt of renewable awards will be assessed for renewal after the Fall/Winter academic year. In order to renew, students must meet any published criteria and have completed at least 18 credits hours with at least a 3.55 cumulative grade point average.
K. All academic awards are assessed using the Grade Point System outlined in The University of Winnipeg Academic Calendar.
Getting Started

So, let’s get started! To make the process of searching and applying for awards manageable and rewarding, there are three questions you need to ask:

1. Who am I?
2. What awards are right for me?
3. How do I apply?

Who Am I?

The Handbook is separated into two main sections. Before you begin your search for awards, you must determine if you are a future student or a current student:

- Entrance Awards:
  - Offered to future or “new” students during the admission process
  - Includes high school sequential, transfer, or mature students coming to The University of Winnipeg for the first time.
  - Must apply to the University for Admission by December 1.
  - Advertised in the Winter. Awarded in the Spring for the Fall Term.

- In-Course Awards:
  - Offered to current students at the University who are enrolled in Year 2, 3, 4 and 5.
  - Advertised in the Summer. Awarded in the Fall, Winter and Spring/Summer terms.

What Awards Are Right for Me?

After you have determined if you are a future or current student, your next step is to understand some common terms used throughout the Awards Handbook. After reading through the various definitions, you can pinpoint what awards are best suited to your unique situation:

- Award:
  - Based on financial need and academic achievement
  - Cumulative grade point average of at least 2.50 (C+)
  - This is also the generic term used to refer to all types of financial assistance

- Bursary:
  - Based on financial need
  - Cumulative grade point average of at least 2.00 (C)

- Fellowship:
  - Based on academic achievement tied to research, innovation
  - Normally given to students in Graduate Studies
  - Grade point average of at least 4.25 (A)

- Medal:
  - Based on academic achievement
  - Normally given at Convocation, upon graduation
  - Do not require that the recipient register again at the University
  - Cumulative grade point average of at least 3.75 (B+)

- Prize:
  - Based on academic achievement
• Normally given at Convocation, upon graduation
• Do not require that the recipient register again at the University
• Cumulative grade point average of at least 3.00 (B)
  o Scholarship:
    • Based on academic achievement
    • Cumulative grade point average of at least 3.00 (B)

How Do I Apply?

Now that you have a better sense of what is available to you, it is time to read through the alphabetical listing of opportunities in the Awards Handbook. Start by checking off all the awards that you might be interested in and go from there. Applying for awards is easy, if you have a plan.
