

Tell us about any plans you have after you graduate.

How did you feel when you learned you were receiving this award? How has it made a difference on your time studying here?

Do you have a message for the donor of your award?

The University is proud to share your success story with others in our community. Sharing your story also helps us raise needed funds so that we can assist more students like you next year. Do you consent to having this form shared with our Communications Department? If yes, a Communications officer may contact you directly to do a short interview. We feature our student stories in web profiles, print materials, and other media and events.
