PUT YOUR PASSION IN PRACTICE.

At Concordia University of Edmonton, Graduate Studies is your connection to a higher level across an array of unique programs and diverse fields. You'll dig deeper, follow your passion, and impact society locally, nationally, and internationally. Complete your program enlightened and prepared to take on a career in your respective field

We offer excellent top graduate degree programs that are recognized and respected both in Canada and internationally.

- Doctor of Psychology in Clinical Psychology
- Master of Education in Educational Leadership
- Master of Information Systems Assurance Management
- Master of Information Systems Security Management
- Master of Science in Information Technology
- Graduate Diploma in Information Security
- Graduate Diploma in Information Assurance
- Graduate Diploma in Environmental Public Health Practice

To be considered for the Faculty of Graduate Studies, all applicants must present the following minimum requirements:

- A four-year baccalaureate degree from Concordia University of Edmonton or its equivalent from a recognized institution. Individual graduate programs may recommend applicants as qualifying/probationary students (e.g., those with three-year degrees).

- An admission grade point average (AGPA) of 3.0 (on Concordia University of Edmonton's 4-point scale) or equivalent on the most recent 60 credits of undergraduate (or graduate) study.

- Demonstrated fulfilment of the English Language Requirement.

Individual graduate programs may impose additional admission requirements.

Scholarships and Awards: graduate students have access to such funding; academic performance is usually considered.

Graduate Students' Association (GSA) is a not-for-profit body that represents the interests of the graduate students of the university. Sign up for one of our the monthly Infosec Seminars!

CONCORDIA.AB.CA/GRADUATE-STUDIES • GRADUATESTUDIES@CONCORDIA.AB.CA