

New Directions is a non-profit organization that provides responsive social, psychological, cultural, and educational services to individuals in our community. Operating in Manitoba since 1865, the organization currently assists over 2,500 individuals. The range of services New Directions provides include counseling, job training, specialized living support, community treatment homes, foster care, and a variety of resources utilized by individuals with intellectual disabilities, the Deaf community, and the Indigenous community.