

Why Bison Transport?

Your career is your choice. Why choose Bison Transport? What do we have to offer you? Our response is simple: great people and rewarding work. Bison Transport offers our employees opportunities for continued growth and personal development, a professional environment that fosters mutual respect and team building and challenging work mentored by industry leaders.

We continually seek customer-focused people with strong business acumen who are passionate about advancing their career. Bison Transport is an award-winning, world-class transportation company. We are a proud Platinum member of Canada's Best Managed Companies and were also named as one of Canada's 10 Most Admired Corporate Cultures!

We believe in the aggressive pursuit of success which is visible in our history and stability as an employer across Canada. We are committed to excellence and leadership in all our business practices and of our employees enjoy the security of working for a reliable company that continues to be an industry leader in an essential supply-chain service.