

Manitoba Civil Service Commission

If you want to work in an organization where integrity, respect for others, accountability and skill and dedication are valued, then a career with the Manitoba government may be right for you.

The Manitoba government is one of the largest employers in Manitoba. The government has a wide variety of departments with over 700 different types of jobs, in communities across the province. The Manitoba government offers rewarding careers to its employees and provides the opportunity to be involved in the delivery of programs and services aimed at improving the quality of lives for all Manitobans. The Manitoba government recognizes the importance of building an exemplary public service reflective of the citizens it serves, where diverse abilities, backgrounds, cultures, identities, languages and perspectives drives a high standard of service and innovation. It is an exciting time to be a public servant in Manitoba; we are undergoing a period of profound technological, environmental, and socioeconomic change that compels us to evaluate the nature of our work and culture and build a public service that is dynamic, innovative, effective and ready for the future.
