What You'll Do

- Lead end-to-end project management for multiple, complex initiatives, from concept to delivery and successful closure.
- Successfully deliver multiple projects, meeting requirements, deadlines, and quality standards within budget constraints.
- Provide comprehensive project reporting for internal and external stakeholders, ensuring clear communication at all levels.
- Foster effective communication among diverse team disciplines and clients to achieve project objectives.
- Skillfully manage priorities, adapt to changes, and meet stakeholder expectations.
- Demonstrate expertise in risk management and proactively plan for risk mitigation.
- Handle issues expertly, identifying and resolving challenges.
- Manage project plans and dependencies across various internal stakeholder groups and external customers.
- Continuously improve delivery processes to optimize project outcomes and efficiency.

- Collaborate proactively with fellow Project Managers to exchange ideas and drive improvements across the enterprise.

Who You Are

- Skilled in collaborating with global teams and executing large projects successfully.
- Proficient in project governance processes and frameworks.
- Proactive and client-focused, ensuring high client satisfaction.
- A skilled communicator across various channels, adapting communication styles and tools to suit different audiences (executives, customers, project team members).
- An individual with strong interpersonal skills and who naturally leads by example.
- Known for effective influencing and decision-making.
- An excellent critical thinker who consistently demonstrates excellent analytical skills.
- Highly adaptable to change and actively drives and embraces change.
- Possesses the ability to focus on the bigger picture and the goals that truly matter.
- Proactively drives continuous improvement and shares best practices.

What You'll Bring

- 5+ years extensive experience in Project Management, specifically with large, intricate projects that encompass various departments, divisions, and business units.
- Demonstrated track record of effectively managing projects delivering technology products and services to external customers.
- Proven ability to concurrently manage multiple, complex projects within a portfolio.
- Proficient in creating and maintaining comprehensive project plans, schedules, and Risk, Assumptions, Issues, and Dependencies (RAIDs) for multiple projects simultaneously.
- A comprehensive understanding and practical application of both agile and waterfall project management methodologies.
