

THE UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG

The Caribbean Research Institute and the Department of Anthropology

proudly present:

Dr. Jason Yaremko

"Indigenous Passages to Cuba: The Indigenous Diaspora to Cuba (and the Caribbean) During the Last Half Millennium"

Dr. Yaremko presents his new book, Indigenous Passages to Cuba, 1515-1900, which explores the multidimensional struggles of diasporic Indigenous peoples in their journeys, voluntary and involuntary, from the continental Americas to Cuba and the Caribbean, and their contributions to the historical development of the region through the last half millennium.

Thursday, January 26
1:00-2:30 pm
Room 5L24

Contact us today for more Information:
204-789-4201
t.trupp@uwinnipeg.ca

Dr. Yaremko's teaching and research interests focus on comparative colonization in the Americas, Indigenous-newcomer relations, Indigenous persistence, resistance, diaspora, and extinction tropes.

JASON M. YAREMKO

DISCOVER · ACHIEVE · BELONG