Writing Centre

The Writing Centre offers sessions for all writing-based assignments.

For more information, see next page.

At the Writing Centre, we can help you become a better writer!

We offer sessions for students of all years and all writing-based assignments.

Sessions can be in-person at the Writing Centre on the 3rd floor of Graham Hall (3G10) or online.

Sessions are usually an hour, but you can request for up to two hours if needed.

What we do

❖ We can help with things like...

- grammar
- paragraph structure
- argument development/thesis statements
- idea organization
- understanding of the assignment rubric

And much more!

We can also help you identify problem areas in your own writing and good editing strategies overall, which can make you a more confident writer! We DON'T proofread/edit your paper, nor do we promise a good grade.

How to book an appointment

- ❖ You can book online through our website or scan the QR code

How to find us

- ❖ There are two ways to get to the Writing Centre (3rd floor Graham Hall, 3G10)

Take the elevator across from the first-floor cafeteria up to the third floor. Walk down the hallway and turn to the left!

Take the escalators up to the third floor. Turn left after you pass the Dean's Office and follow the brightly-coloured corridor towards the Duckworth Athletic Centre.

At the end of the hallway before the overpass, turn left (signs for Graham Hall) Turn left down that hallway and go through the door.
