2019 Duff Roblin Award Recipient Jennifer Roblin

Jennifer Roblin

Jennifer Roblin was born and raised in Winnipeg, Manitoba. An accomplished actress and Collegiate graduate, class of 1979, Jennifer is a dedicated donor and longtime friend to The University of Winnipeg.

Jennifer studied history at Trinity College, University of Toronto and is a graduate of The American Conservatory Theater of San Francisco's Advanced Training Program. She has acted on Broadway and in repertory theatre in both the US and Canada.

Jennifer gives generously of her time and resources and has been a long-time supporter of fighting poverty in Winnipeg's inner city, in particular on behalf of children. She recognizes the importance of after-school homework clubs, cultural programs and free, public meeting spaces to communities who otherwise have limited resources.

This year marked the 5th anniversary of her annual spring tea, an event she hosts at her home in Toronto in support of the Wii Chiiwaakanak Learning Centre. To date she has successfully raised over $140,000 for the Centre. With a deep commitment to education, she has also pledged her ongoing support to the Duff Roblin Scholars Program, named in honour of her father, The Honourable Duff Roblin, former Premier of Manitoba.

In 2015 she co-signed a letter to her Collegiate classmates in support of the $5 million Leatherdale Hall Campaign which spurred the resurrection of Tony's Canteen, an infamous cafeteria that decades of Collegiate graduates fondly remember.

In Toronto, she is dedicated to supporting newcomers and refugees, as they transition into their new Canadian lives. Jennifer sponsors Syrian refugee families, providing financial support and welcoming them to Canada.

She is married to Production Designer Craig Lathrop and has three children.
