Student Newsletter

September 12, 2019

Meet the Editor

Greetings to all our new and returning UWinnipeg FBE students! It's great seeing the student energy return to our hallways and see the quiet study area outside my office door come alive again! I hope you're getting well into the swing of things in your second week back in classes.

My name is Holly Bochorka and I'm the editor of this newsletter as well as the person working hard behind the screen on social media and the 'voice' for the FBE (although thankfully, my colleagues fill in from time to time). I also create content for the 3rd and 4th floor TV screens in Buhler and help to plan a few of the events here at the Faculty. A big part of my job, though, is to get you the information you need - in short - I'm here for you!

There's a lot happening right now, so in the upcoming weeks you'll often find me plugging away in my office, 1BC10 (first floor), or attending events like FROSH (pictured here from last year). Make sure to say "hi" when you see me!

The best place to find complete and pertinent information on a timely basis is the newsletter delivered to your UWinnipeg email address every Wednesday. I also post on our social media sites - especially Facebook and Instagram - and when you're waiting for the (very slow) Buhler Centre elevator, check out the 3rd- and 4th-floor TV screens!

Also make sure you are on LinkedIn. This is your professional network and you need to begin building it today! You're going to meet industry leaders, entrepreneurs and like-minded business professionals. You will want a robust network full of connections when the time comes to look for a job in your field.

In the upcoming weeks, I'll feature some of my colleagues here in the Faculty, and talk a little about their roles as well, so that you'll get to know all of us. (Shhh...I haven't told them yet!)

Contact me at h.bochorka@uwinnipeg.ca if you have any questions about upcoming events, news or have something you'd like to share in the newsletter!
