It's that time of year again!

No, Santa's not coming back in April, but there are some busy BASA and FESA elves that have worked overtime to help students out with exam cram efforts!

Whether you're a study-loner and need lots of quiet space to yourself, or if you need to cram with your peers, they've got you covered!

BASA and FESA are holding Exam Cram days on April 8th and 9th from 8:30 a.m. to 11 p.m. Pop into the main floor on Buhler those days and find out more about study areas, tutoring and more.

We know how stressful this time of year can be, so we'd like to remind you of a few popular study spaces.

There's our student lounge, with the most funky chairs in the building on the third floor. Don't forget about those bright, airy areas on the third and fourth floors to hunker down and hit the books in a glorious ray of sunshine.

We also have our 'Behind the Glass' quiet student space that's open for business! If you're feeling in a 'laid back' mood, then feel free to pull up one of our colourful funky stools like our FBE mascot and settle into your comfort zone!

If you find that you need the support of a table or desk to spread out the books, paperwork and laptop, then that's here for you too.

We'll have more information on student group led Exam Cram soon, with some additional study-hardy areas and even some carbs to keep your brain energy firing. Watch for the posters popping up in Buhler!

BASA students experience homelessness to help raise awareness

UWinnipeg BASA raised $1,650 as well as awareness this year by experiencing homelessness first hand.

Sleeping out in the cold last week was an eye-opening experience for a group of University of Winnipeg students. "We have sleeping bags and blankets, but people on the streets, sometimes they don't even have that and they have to sleep in these temperatures," said Aiseosa Imasuen; BASA Co-Chair for 5 Days for the Homeless. All funds raised were donated to RaY (Resource assistance for Youth in need).
