MAKING A PLANNED GIFT

At The University of Winnipeg

UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG

FOUNDATION

WHAT IS A PLANNED GIFT?

A planned gift is a charitable donation that can be arranged during your lifetime, but is not available to the University until sometime in the future. Along with a gift in your Will through a bequest, other planning options can offer you financial benefits while helping you to achieve your philanthropic goals and make a transformative difference. Different types of planned gifts may include:

- › Gifts of cash
- › Gifts of stocks and securities
- › Bequests
- › Charitable Remainder Trusts
- › Life insurance policies

THE LEGACY CIRCLE

If you have decided to include The University of Winnipeg and/or The Collegiate in your estate plans, we would like to show you our appreciation by including you as a member of The University of Winnipeg Foundation's honorary society: The Legacy Circle.

With lasting generosity, members of The Legacy Circle play an essential role in securing the future of The University of Winnipeg. By leaving a legacy gift to The University of Winnipeg and/or The Collegiate, members are investing in future generations of students.

Legacy Circle Benefits

Members of The Legacy Circle will be acknowledged in the following ways:

- › With permission, name listed in printed donor listings, and electronic media
- › Receive front-of-the-line privileges for select University of Winnipeg and Collegiate events
- › Invitations to member-only events
- › Exclusive campus updates and behind-the-scenes information
- › Personalized thanks and recognition gift

*Gifts are gratefully acknowledged—whether you prefer to keep your recognition private or are comfortable receiving public recognition,
we will respect your wishes.*
