- Plagiarism is a form of academic dishonesty in which students present published or unpublished work (written, digital, or other) of another person or persons, or one's own prior work, in its entirety or in part, as their own original work. The University of Winnipeg treats such instances of academic misconduct with the utmost seriousness. Applications that include plagiarized material will not be considered for admission to any graduate program at the University. For more information about the definition of plagiarism and its consequence, please refer to the Regulations & Policies of Academic Misconduct at: Graduate Studies Policies and Guidelines.
