

Department of Kinesiology and Applied Health

Our mission is to provide an environment where students can pursue their potential through our commitment to excellence in teaching, research, and community service.

The University of Winnipeg Department of Kinesiology and Applied Health One-Year Term Position – Pedagogy

The Department of Kinesiology and Applied Health at the University of Winnipeg, invites applications from qualified men and women for a one-year term appointment at the rank of Instructor. Subject to budgetary approval, this appointment will be effective August 1, 2015. Salary is competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience within the instructor classifications. A minimum of a Master's degree is required. The successful candidate must have excellent teaching skills and a demonstrated expertise in the requested course areas.

Applications are invited from individuals with demonstrated teaching expertise in Kinesiology and Physical Education. The major area of focus for the position is in pedagogy, including courses such as: Teaching Team Physical Activities, Teaching Individual Physical Activities, Movement Education, Teaching Games for Understanding, Outdoor Education, and Physical Growth and Motor Development. For a more detailed description and list of course offerings, please visit our website at: <http://kinesiology.uwinnipeg.ca>

The University of Winnipeg is primarily an undergraduate liberal arts institution. We have a strong commitment to undergraduate teaching excellence and research. The Department of Kinesiology and Applied Health serves students pursuing a major in Kinesiology and Applied Health including streams in Athletic Therapy, Coaching, Exercise Science, Personal Fitness Training, as well as students wishing to teach Physical and Health Education in the public school system.

The University of Winnipeg is committed to employment equity, welcomes diversity in the workplace, and encourages applications from all qualified individuals including women, members of visible minorities, Indigenous persons, and persons with disabilities. In accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, this advertisement is initially directed to Canadian citizens and permanent residents.

The beginning date for reviewing applications is April 20th, 2015 and will continue until the position is filled. Interested candidates should send a cover letter, and curriculum vitae listing three referees to:

Gerren McDonald
Acting Chair – Department of Kinesiology and Applied Health
The University of Winnipeg
515 Portage Avenue
Winnipeg, Manitoba R3B 2E9
E-mail: g.mcdonald@uwinnipeg.ca