International Tutor Program

What Is It?

The University of Winnipeg International Tutor Program provides first language and English language tutoring in particular subjects.

How Does It Work?

- Students meet with tutors one-to-one to receive help with courses, study skills, paper writing, exam preparation, and doing assignments.
- Students can choose to be tutored in English, Mandarin or another language as per availability.
- Tutoring is available for select introductory courses in areas such as Business and Science, as well as academic writing skills. Other subjects may be available; fill out and submit your Tutor Request Form determine if a tutor is available in your subject area.
- Each student can receive up to 1 hour of free tutoring per week.

Who Is It For?

- This program is for any international student who needs more support and help with successfully understanding and completing courses.

What Do I Do?

- Fill out this request form and send it via email to: iss@uwinnipeg.ca
- You will be matched with a tutor within 5 days of submitting your application, if one is available in your subject area.
- If no tutor is available in your subject area, we may refer you to another tutoring program, or you may be put on a Wait List if the tutor for that subject is unavailable.

☐ I have read and understood the information given here about the International Tutor Program.

I understand:

- That being matched with a tutor fitting all my preferences and/or criteria cannot be 100% guaranteed.
- That the quality and the reliability of the tutor cannot be guaranteed once matched.
- That I am responsible for keeping my appointments and failure to notify my tutor and International Student Services could result in discontinuing tutor support through ISS.
