

THE UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG

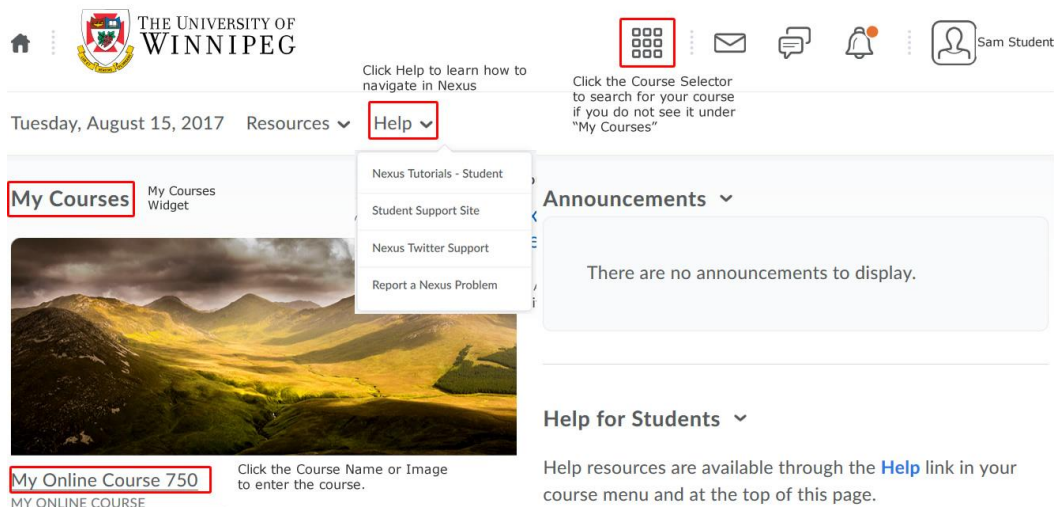

Video on Demand – VOD

You have registered for a VOD course, the University of Winnipeg Video on Demand system. Lectures for your course are recorded on the date/time listed in WebAdvisor and then the course video is posted to your Nexus course site approximately 1 hour later, where you can view it online 24/7.

Nexus

All materials for your VOD course including the course videos, assignments, announcements, syllabus, etc. will be posted in Nexus, the University of Winnipeg’s online course management system.

Go to <http://nexus.uwinnipeg.ca> to log on and view your course material. Log on using your UW assigned WebAdvisor username and password. Once you have logged on, you will see your VOD course listed under “My Courses” - click on the course name to enter the course site.

Viewing Videos – Desktop View

Once you have logged on to your course site in Nexus:

Help with Nexus

New to Nexus? Not sure what to do? Once you have logged on to Nexus, click on the arrow beside "Help" to access tutorials and assistance with using Nexus. See Image below:

The screenshot shows the Nexus user interface. At the top left is the University of Winnipeg logo. The date is Tuesday, August 15, 2017. There are navigation links for Resources and Help. The Help menu is open, showing options: Nexus Tutorials - Student, Student Support Site, Nexus Twitter Support, and Report a Nexus Problem. Below the Help menu is the My Courses widget, which displays a landscape image and the text "My Online Course 750". To the right of the My Courses widget is the Announcements section, which states "There are no announcements to display." Below the Announcements section is the Help for Students section, which states "Help resources are available through the Help link in your course menu and at the top of this page."
