

Outcomes for 2018-19 RSF Grant

Eligible Expenditure Category	Institutional Performance Objective	Indicator	Output	Outcomes reported at year end
Research Facilities	Maintain sufficient high quality research space to meet faculty and student research needs	Research spaces for faculty and students remain operational throughout the year	25% of the University's RSF grant will be used to maintain research spaces	All space needs were accommodated for researchers across campus
Research Resources	Sustain resources responsibly	Trustworthy and respected open access resources remain available to our faculty and students	30% of the RSF is dedicated to research resources, including Library administration and holdings	Continued to improved capacity for the storage, management, archiving and dissemination of research data
Regulatory Requirements and Accreditation	Maintain ethics and reporting compliance as mandated by the Tri-Council Policy Statement (TCSP2) and the Canadian Council on Animal Care (CCAC)	Active human and animal research ethics protocols renewed annually and animal use report submitted to CCAC	A portion of the RSF used to support online application and reviewing system	Remained compliant with TCPS2 and CCAC guidelines, and maintained ongoing certification in Good Animal Practice
Management and Administration of institution's research enterprise	Continue to support and increase Tri-Council grant applications and efficiently process	The number and quality of Tri-Council grant applications submitted by faculty and the	30% of the University's RSF grant supports the salaries of our research facilitators, and	Researchers continued to be successful in the Tri-Agency nationally peer-reviewed grant competitions, which

	and administrate Tri-Council awards	rate of successful awards	research accounting personnel	includes CIHR, NSERC and SSHRC.
Intellectual Property and Knowledge Mobilization	Develop our capacity to respond to growth in industry-led projects, research partnerships and commercial opportunities	The number of new industry-led projects and research partnerships initiated	5% of the University's RSF grant supports salaries and fees toward internal and external legal, IP, and tech transfer expertise	Continued to increase the value of industry-led projects, research partnerships, and opportunities for commercialization