Nov 14th to 17th

Four days of workshops, conversations, and fun!
Open to students, staff, faculty, and our community of curious minds.
Don't miss out on this fantastic opportunity to supercharge your research journey. Free coffee and donuts available! ☕ 🍩

Day 1 Workshops

Tuesday November 14th | Room 2M70

11:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.

Research Week Kickoff: Speed Networking Extravaganza

Whether you're a staff member, faculty, or a student, this laid-back event is the perfect opportunity to expand your network, discover fascinating research projects, and satisfy your caffeine cravings - all under one roof!

1:00 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

Unlocking the Power of Public Media: Skills for Researchers

Join us for an enlightening panel discussion, "Unlocking the Power of Public Media: Skills for Researchers." This engaging session will bring together media experts and savvy researchers to share invaluable tips and tricks on harnessing the potential of public media to effectively engage with the wider public.

2:30 p.m. to 3:45 p.m.

Community-Based Research Across Disciplines

Community-based research is practiced in a wide range of subject areas and is often interdisciplinary, yet CBR researchers don't always connect across the borders of disciplines and methods.

This discussion provides an opportunity for engagement and exchange between researchers in different fields who have a shared interest in deep community collaborations that are equitable, reciprocal, and create positive change.

Day 4 Workshops

Friday November 17th | Room 2M70

11:30 a.m. to 12:20 p.m.

Mastering Plain Language Communication

In an era where clear, accessible communication is essential, this session will guide you through the art of using plain language to describe your research projects effectively.

12:30 p.m. to 1:20 p.m.

Freaky Friday: Flipped 3MT

Research Week presents a newly imagined version of the 3-Minute Thesis (3MT): Freaky Friday: Flipped 3MT. This event will flip the traditional 3MT competition led by Graduate Studies and will instead feature faculty members sharing their research with one slide within 3 minutes (props, songs, raps, etc. permitted and encouraged).

1:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Convocation Hall
and Online via Zoom.
Registration is requested!

Crippling Climate Adaption: Screening, Panel Discussion, Conversation

This event features a film screening of Crippling Climate Adaptation: Disability Justice and Climate Change followed by a panel discussion, and then for those interested in furthering this conversation, focused and facilitated conversations, focusing on risks, roles, obligations, and opportunities to use disability justice to take action on climate change.

6:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.
