

THE UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG

Office of the Vice-President,
Research & Innovation

Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion in Research Certificate

All modules will be taught in-person, and you are required to register for all six modules. A detailed syllabus will be provided to all registrants.

JAN 26

Module 1: What is EDI and How Can It Be Incorporated into Research Design?

Instructor: Dr. Jennifer Adams, Canada Research Chair in STEM and Creativity and Academic Director of EDI in Research and Black Futures Strategy, University of Calgary

11:30-
12:30
OR
1:30-
2:30

This module will provide an overview of how equity, diversity, inclusion, anti-racism, and decolonization (EDI/AR/D) are defined in the context of research design and practice. It will also outline the current and planned EDI/AR/D resources and training available at The University of Winnipeg.

FEB
6

Module 2: EDI in Grant Writing

Instructor: Larissa Wodtke, Program Officer, EDI/AR/D, University of Winnipeg

12:30-
1:30

This module focuses on how to incorporate EDI/AR/D principles into Tri-Agency grant applications in a meaningful and effective manner, including as part of research design, team composition, training, budget, and knowledge mobilization/translation plans.

FEB
13

Module 3: EDI in Research Team Building and Training/ Mentorship

Instructor: Dr. Nicole Kaniki, Director of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion in Research and Innovation, University of Toronto

12:30-
1:30

This module offers guidance and best practices for incorporating EDI/AR/D principles into research team composition and training/mentorship practices within the research environment.

THE UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG

Office of the Vice-President,
Research & Innovation

Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion in Research Certificate

FEB
27

Module 4: Embedding EDI in Knowledge Mobilization/ Translation and Data Management

Instructor: Dr. Leela Viswanathan, Viswali Consulting

12:30-
1:30

This module will outline methods and strategies for embedding EDI/AR/D principles into knowledge mobilization/translation and research data management to make research findings accessible and ethical for equity-deserving audiences and stakeholders.

MAR
13-16

Module 5: EDI in Research Practice Workshop (Faculty-Specific)

Instructor: Dr. Kumudinie Kariyapperuma, Research Facilitator, Wilfrid Laurier University

9:30-
12:00
OR
1:30-
4:00

This module is a hands-on workshop that is faculty-specific (Arts/
Education/Business and Administration, Science/Kinesiology and Applied
Health), in which participants will walk through the process of how to plan and implement equity, diversity, and inclusion principles within their research practice and processes.

Science/Kinesiology and Applied Health

Mar. 13 - 9:30-12:00

Mar. 14 - 1:30-4:00

Mar. 15 - 1:30-4:00

Mar. 16 - 9:30-12:00

Arts/Education/Business and Administration

Mar. 13 - 1:30-4:00

Mar. 14 - 9:30-12:00

Mar. 15 - 9:30-12:00

Mar. 16 - 1:30-4:00

MAR
29

Module 6: EDI in Research Colloquium

Instructor: Larissa Wodtke, Program Officer, EDI/AR/D, University of Winnipeg

12:30-
1:30

This module will act as a self-reflexive wrap-up session for the EDI in Research Certificate, including discussion and evaluation of what was learned over the past five modules. This module will also be an opportunity to address any outstanding questions from previous sessions.