

JOIN US FOR THE RUPERT'S LAND COLLOQUIUM IN GRANDE PRAIRIE, ALBERTA, MAY 16 TO 19, 2018

The Centre for Rupert's Land Studies at the University of Winnipeg invites you to our 18th biennial Colloquium. The Colloquium will be held at Grande Prairie Regional College. Presentations will cover a broad range of topics in Indigenous and fur trade history.

Highlights Include:

- Evening reception at Centre 2000 (Wednesday, May 16)
- Two days of paper presentations and panel discussions (Thursday and Friday, May 17 & 18)
 - Poster displays and session displays of material culture, books and crafts
 - Optional banquet at Centre 2000 (Friday evening, May 18)
 - Optional field trip by bus to Historic Dunvegan and Peace River, with possible stops along the way, breakfast & lunch included (Saturday, May 19)

Watch our website for updates:
<http://www.uwinnipeg.ca/index/rupertsland>

Or contact us at:

The Centre for Rupert's Land Studies
at the University of Winnipeg
515 Portage Avenue
Winnipeg, MB
Canada
R3B 2E9

204.786.9003

rupert.land@uwinnipeg.ca