COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed as an introduction to the basic concepts of theatre with an emphasis on the art and craft of the performer. While the emphasis will be on the development of acting technique, this course is an introduction to theatre in the larger sense. Time will be spent examining the relationship between the various creative roles in the theatre.

The course begins with basic acting exercises, including improvisation and movement work. These are designed to help the student develop the skills which are the foundation of contemporary acting technique. In the second half of the course the student applies these skills to scripted scenes. He or she must rehearse and perform two scenes drawn from the modern and/or contemporary theatre. The stylistic form of the course and the scene work is Realism. Students will be required to keep a continuing rehearsal journal for the duration of the course which will form the basis of an essay on acting. The student will also be introduced to various forms of modern drama and script interpretation through an examination of plays representing a range of modern and contemporary work. Classes will consist of lectures, group discussions, practical exercises and projects, and workshop sessions focussing on prepared performance material.

In terms of practical skills, the course objective is for the student to be able to generate a dramatic action in a given circumstance in such a way that an audience believes it. In regards to analytical skills, the course objective is for the student to be able to examine a script from the perspective of an interpretive artist.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS

Assignments will NOT be accepted after the due date. Extensions may be granted but only BEFORE the due date and with a valid reason, at the professor's discretion. Assignments are accepted in class or at the Department Office (3T03).

REHEARSALS

During the Fall Term, students will be required to meet to practice the improvisational exercises and scene work introduced in class. This requirement will involve from one to two hours of out-of-class work per week. During the Winter Term all students will be required to take part in ongoing scene rehearsals outside of scheduled class time. This requirement will involve a MINIMUM of two to four hours per week. Students unable or unwilling to comply with this requirement are asked to withdraw from the course immediately.

Any student who repeatedly misses rehearsals, comes late, or fails to rehearse adequately will be asked to withdraw from the course. This includes all classes and out of class rehearsals. This provision has been established to protect the educational interests of scene partners and other classmates.

Scenes must be approved by the instructor PRIOR to the start of the allotted rehearsal period.

SPECTATORSHIP

Students are required to purchase tickets to three selected professional performances as per the course schedule. Attendance at these performances is mandatory. Performances will be discussed in class as well as reviewed in written form. Students are responsible for booking and attending the play well BEFORE the due date for the review and class discussion.

DRESS REQUIREMENT

*All apparel must fit well, and allow for ease of movement

As many of our classes are physical in nature, students are asked to wear comfortable clothing. Outdoor footwear must be removed before entering the studio. Please observe the following guidelines:

- Pants must allow freedom of movement (i.e. sweats, tights, yoga/martial arts pants, shorts)
- No low-rise pants, overly baggy pants or street shoes or hats
- T-shirts or leotards (a fair bit of time may be spent on the ground so low-cut tops are a bad idea)
- Bare feet/dance shoes are both acceptable
- Hair should be tied back
- No jewelry that might interfere with movement or create a safety hazard
- No chewing gum

JOURNALS

The student is expected to keep a journal of the knowledge and experience that s/he acquires in class and any knowledge gained outside of class that has bearing on creative work. The entries should be of a reflective nature regarding classroom exercises, technical assignments, focused answers to specific questions, play/scene analysis, and observed discoveries about theatre, performance, and personal growth. This is also a good place to document your rehearsals and scene work that is being done outside of the classroom. This journal will form the research basis for the final essay assignment and will be submitted with the Acting Essay. It is required that the journal be submitted to the professor at least once during the first term for feedback and a preliminary mark.

The Acting Essay is a composite summary of the individual student's personal journey, process and theory of Acting and Performance based on the text A Practical Handbook for the Actor, class lectures and discussions, log/journal, personal discoveries, and rehearsal/performance experiences.

PLAY ANALYSIS AND QUIZZES

The following plays will be studied and used in the classroom:

Jail Baby by Hope McIntyre and Cairn Moore

Private Lives by Neil Simon

Top Girls by Caryl Churchill

The plays are to be read for the class in which they will be discussed, on this day a short quiz exploring your response to the play will take place.

In addition, you will be required to see three performances and submit a short analysis on each.

SCENE GRADING CRITERIA

1. Are you playing action, i.e. is your character doing something to the other character(s)? (Specificity)

2. Is your character interacting impulsively with the other character(s) moment to moment (i.e. is the scene a "pinch/ouch" ping pong game?)
3. Is your character reacting with a point of view and an attitude? (Vulnerability)
4. Does the character have a logical "through line" where required?
5. Are you meeting particular demands of the script? For example:
 - a) special language requirements (rhythm, timing, diction, lyricism, poetic imagery, etc.)
 - b) special style requirements (depth of character for realism and naturalism, stepping in and out of character for didacticism, massive variety and the surprise use of pauses for absurdism, ease in breaking the fourth wall for feminism, etc.)
6. Is there sufficient commitment to the action and circumstances to make the scene believable and emotional as opposed to merely intellectual? (Impulse)
7. Are the numerous shifts in action occurring clearly?
8. Are you taking advantage of the ironies available in the scene?
9. Is there progression in the scene, i.e. does something change?
10. Is the tension (leading to conflict) strong and clear?
11. Can we hear you comfortably?
12. Are the stakes sufficiently high to make the scene exciting?
13. Is the physical world in which the scene takes place used to strengthen the action?
14. Are the actor's voice, body, and inner impulse in harmony? (Unity)
15. Is the actor using her/his body effectively to carry the action of the scene? (Physical character, blocking and physicalization of action)

NOTE: The list above is a summary of the key considerations which regularly arise when qualified adjudicators evaluate scene work. At various stages of training, some of these considerations may be weighted above others. However, it is difficult, at any point, to ignore any of the above criteria, particularly when some of the performers are achieving mastery in an area where others are not.

ATTENDANCE AND LATENESS (for first-year Performance classes)

Given that this is a practical studio course, extensive participation and professionalism are required. As a result, punctuality and attendance at class and in out-of-class rehearsals are of the utmost importance. Unexcused absences from lecture, lab, or out-of-class rehearsal will be penalized at a rate of 1% per instance. Unexcused lateness for lecture, lab, or out-of-class rehearsal will be penalized at a rate of .5% per instance. Attendance and punctuality will be recorded at the beginning of every class. After a THIRD late or absence, the instructor will schedule a meeting with the student to discuss withdrawal from the course. After a FIFTH unexcused absence the student will be required to meet with the Chair of the department to discuss withdrawal from the course.

Excused absences or lates require a medical note or prior arrangement with the instructor. It is at the instructor's discretion whether or not to excuse a non-medical absence. After FIVE excused absences the student will be required to meet with the Instructor to discuss whether it is realistic for him/her to continue in the course.

Given the rigorous, practical nature of studio courses, and the demands these courses make in terms of attendance and punctuality, students with chronic medical conditions that will require extensive absence should meet with the instructor at the beginning of the term to discuss whether the course is appropriate for them.

"THE REAL THING" LECTURE SERIES

The Department of Theatre and Film is presenting a series of six lectures which will be held on Wednesdays during the free period (12:30-13:20) in Theatre 1T15. Please note the dates in your diary NOW: Sept 17, Oct 22, Nov 12, Jan 14, Feb 11, Mar 11. This series will feature speakers from a range of areas in the performing arts: technical, performance, design, management, film, directing, playwriting, etc. These speakers will specifically address issues related to "the business of the business."

Attendance for potential Theatre Honours/majors and for Film majors is optional but highly recommended.

NOTES FOR PERFORMANCE COURSES

Rehearsals for final presentations and public exercises are scheduled well in advance; students must arrange their university and work schedules so as not to conflict with them. Students must attend ALL scheduled rehearsals.

Any student who repeatedly misses rehearsals, comes late, or fails to rehearse adequately will be asked to withdraw from the course.

As many of our classes are physical in nature, students are asked to wear comfortable clothing.

Outdoor footwear must be removed before entering ANY of the Studios: 0T09 (Concourse Studio), 0T19 (Mime Lab), 1T15 (Theatre), 2T05 (2nd Floor Studio), 2T15 (Movement Studio). We suggest you bring suitable dance shoes or slippers to wear in class. Your professors will monitor and enforce this regulation in order to preserve the integrity of the special flooring in these rooms. Please respect this rule.

Student actors, like professionals, are expected to provide their own basic makeup supplies where required for public exercises. Due to the potential for the transmission of skin diseases it is not recommended that students share makeup.

Senior acting students scheduled to perform in a departmental public exercise are asked not to modify their hair colour or style without first checking with the instructor/director.

Students who bring props, costumes, or furnishings to support scene presentations please note:

- the University will NOT be responsible for the loss of any such materials;
- students are responsible for the IMMEDIATE removal of such materials after EACH use – the department does not provide storage;
- materials not claimed WILL BE DISPOSED OF at the student's expense. Grades may be withheld until such costs are recovered;
- students MUST NOT move existing furnishings from their current locations.

STUDENT PARTICIPATION POLICY

Theatre is a communal art form in which a number of interdependent artists and crafts people co-operate to create a work of art. This fact is necessarily transferred to the learning situation, and is reflected in many of the Department's courses. Consequently, it is the Department's policy that students are required to: complete homework such as reading, line-learning, script analysis, prop lists, design drawings, etc.; attend classes; attend rehearsals both within and outside of class times; and, in short, to exhibit commitment towards the inevitably shared endeavours of our field of study.

Any student failing to fulfil these requirements is harmful to the progress of dedicated students and may, after due warning, be asked to withdraw from any individual Departmental course.

COURSE CONTENT NOTE

All Theatre and Film Classes

Dramatic Literature depicts a wide variety of human action, both elevated and base, public and private, physical and psychological, sexual and non-sexual, etc. The Department of Theatre and Film will not undertake to censor the subject matter of dramatic works.

Students who have concerns about dealing with the full range of content and style in drama/film are urged to discuss these concerns with the course instructor.

Performance-Related Classes

Much of an actor's work is based upon actual experiences of life which become translated into fictional circumstances. Because of this, the teaching of acting may involve encouraging the student to examine personal and even intimate areas of life to help him or her access life experiences appropriate to the demands of the work.

Dramatic literature depicts a wide range of human actions, both elevated and base, public and private, physical and psychological, sexual and non-sexual, etc. Acting students must learn to simulate life truthfully in interaction with other students in the safety of the acting class and the rehearsal hall through exercises, discussions, and directions which address rather than avoid truthful, particularized, personalized action.

Performance classes often require strenuous physical activity. Classes may also involve physical interaction between students as part of class exercises or character development and occasional physical contact by instructors for purposes such as the demonstration of a technique or to make a posture correction. Students are responsible for wearing clothing appropriate to these activities.

Students who have concerns about dealing with the full range of actions and subject matter involved in drama are urged to discuss these concerns with their course instructor.
