COURSE DESCRIPTION

The objective of this course is to offer an introduction to technical production in theatre through lectures, projects, and production work. This course is designed to give the student an introduction to the technical aspects of theatrical and media production, concentrating on lighting and an introduction to sound. Emphasis will be on basic concepts and practical application through practical lab work on a departmental production.

Lab sessions will offer the student the opportunity of applying the principles acquired from lectures to hands-on projects and production work related to the departmental public exercises. In addition, in order to develop a broad experience in theatre, the student will be expected to participate in department activities beyond these supervised sessions.

TEXT:            Scene Design and Stage Lighting by R. Craig Wolf and Dick Block

In addition the following books and periodicals can be valuable supplementary library references:

1. Theatrical Design and Production by J. Michael Gillette; McGraw Hill.
2. Scene Technology by Richard L. Arnold; Prentice Hall, Inc., Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey.
3. Scene Design, Stage Lighting, Sound, Costumes and Make-up by W. F. Bellman; Harper and Row.
4. Scenery for the Theatre by H. Burris-Meyer and E. C. Cole; Little Brown and Co.
5. Stage Scenery, Its Construction and Rigging by A. S. Gillette and J. M. Gillette; Harper and Row.
6. Backstage Handbook by Paul Carter; Broadway Press, New York.
7. Theatre Crafts International, an industry journal (available in the Library).

Students will be expected to have a 3-ring binder and a pencil for every session. An imperial measure (Architect's) scale rule will also be required for some labs.

Finally, the purchase of season tickets to the Royal Manitoba Theatre Centre (Mainstage) is suggested. Our program includes the study of theatrical facilities for which we will be using RMTC and its facilities as teaching examples. It is important that you observe the techniques used as a member of the audience.

STUDENT PARTICIPATION POLICY

Theatre is a communal art form in which a number of interdependent artists and crafts people co-operate to create a work of art. This fact is necessarily transferred to the learning situation, and is reflected in many of the Department's courses. Consequently, it is the Department's policy that students are required to: complete homework such as reading, line-learning, script analysis, prop lists, design drawings, etc.; attend classes; attend rehearsals both within and outside of class times; and, in short, to exhibit commitment towards the inevitably shared endeavours of our field of study.

Any student failing to fulfil these requirements is harmful to the progress of dedicated students and may, after due warning, be asked to withdraw from any individual Departmental course.

COURSE CONTENT NOTE

Dramatic Literature depicts a wide variety of human action, both elevated and base, public and private, physical and psychological, sexual and non-sexual, etc. The Department of Theatre and Film will not undertake to censor the subject matter of dramatic works.

Students who have concerns about dealing with the full range of content and style in drama/film are urged to discuss these concerns with the course instructor.
