The objective of this course is to further the technical production training begun in the Production I course with the introduction of management concepts as they apply to production operations for theatre and film.

Students will explore the roles of the technical manager as they relate specifically to the provision and management of supplies, personnel and equipment in the modern production setting. Practical applications of these principles to theatre and film production will be introduced along with rudimentary bookkeeping and budgeting. The study of theatrical facilities will be continued as essential background for the technical manager.

The course is primarily comprised of lecture sessions and may be taken alone or as a complimentary pre- or co-requisite to THFM-3801 Production II to balance the theoretical and practical components between the two.

EVALUATION Work not submitted will graded as 0.

Assignments* (normally 5 assignments x 12% distributed evenly over the term)	60%
Final Examination (TBA)	30%
Class participation	10%

Total	100%

STUDENT PARTICIPATION POLICY

Theatre is a communal art form in which a number of interdependent artists and crafts people co-operate to create a work of art. This fact is necessarily transferred to the learning situation, and is reflected in many of the Department's courses. Consequently, it is the Department's policy that students are required to: complete homework such as reading, line-learning, script analysis, prop lists, design drawings, etc.; attend classes; attend rehearsals both within and outside of class times; and, in short, to exhibit commitment towards the inevitably shared endeavours of our field of study.

Any student failing to fulfil these requirements is harmful to the progress of dedicated students and may, after due warning, be asked to withdraw from any individual Departmental course.

COURSE CONTENT NOTE All Theatre and Film Classes

Dramatic Literature depicts a wide variety of human action, both elevated and base, public and private, physical and psychological, sexual and non-sexual, etc. The Department of Theatre and Film will not undertake to censor the subject matter of dramatic works.

Students who have concerns about dealing with the full range of content and style in drama/film are urged to discuss these concerns with the course instructor.
