Sorry!

This course outline is not yet available for 2016/17.

You may want to check our Archives page for an earlier version from a previous year at:

http://theatre.uwinnipeg.ca/archives.htm

We are working to publish current outlines as soon as they are available and hope to have most of them approved by the end of July.

Nevertheless, some may not be available to post until just prior to the start of term.

In most cases, outlines from our Archives should provide you with applicable course information but if you need one for the coming year, please check back again between now and the start of term.

Text book lists for all courses should be available at the bookstore.

We thank you for your patience.
