PREREQUISITE or CO-REQUISITE: THFM-1001 or THFM-1002.

The objective of this course is to offer an introduction to technical production in theatre through lectures, projects, and production work. Theatrical Production I is divided into two halves as follows:

1. Sound and Lighting in Production (Electricity), and
2. Stagecraft and Theatrical Facilities.

The course is divided into lecture and lab sessions. Lectures expose students to principles of stagecraft, the handling of lighting and sound equipment, and the study of theatre facilities with an emphasis on proscenium and studio spaces. Considerations of safety in the handling of equipment and materials will be included throughout along with use of the Workplace Hazardous Materials Information System.

Lab sessions will offer the student the opportunity of applying the principles acquired from lecture to hands-on projects and production work related to the departmental public exercises. To develop broader experience in production, additional opportunities will be available for students to participate in department projects.

EVALUATION Grading is divided evenly between each half of the course.

Assignments distributed over the Stagecraft section (see schedule below)	15%
Scenic construction labs in the 2nd quarter of Stagecraft	15%
Scenic Construction & Production Test	5%
3 tests evenly distributed over the Sound and Lighting section	15%
Practical lighting labs for the 2nd quarter of Sound and Lighting	20%
Class participation (5% each term)	10%

Term Work	80%
Final Exam (Date: TBA) spring exam covers both Stagecraft and Electricity	20%

Total	100%

POLICY ON LATE ASSIGNMENTS

All project work and papers must be submitted on time.

Late assignments will not be accepted and will be graded as zero unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor concerned. Work not submitted will be graded as zero.

CRITERIA FOR GRADING PARTICIPATION

The criteria the instructor considers in assigning participation marks includes the following points:

- Preparation: Was the student prepared? Were they on time, having completed assignments/readings?
- Quality and nature of the participant's contributions and interactions with others:
Were the student's contributions or questions relevant? Did they promote debate?
Did the student respect others, listen well, and respond to others' input?
Did the student demonstrate productivity in labs and/or offer help to others?
- Negatives: Did the student create distractions, seek attention or appear inattentive during lectures?
Did he/she engage in facebooking, texting, emailing, idle conversation and the like.
- Attendance: Students should note that missing class sessions will limit their opportunities to participate and demonstrate positive interactions. This will negatively affect the participation mark.

CONVERSION SCALE The following conversion table will be used to calculate the final grade:

A+	90 – 100%	GPA	4.5	C+	65 – 69.9%	GPA	2.5
A	85 – 89.9%	GPA	4.25	C	60 – 64.9%	GPA	2.0

B+	75 – 79.9%	GPA	3.5	F	below 50%	GPA	0

COURSE CONTENT AND STUDENT PARTICIPATION (all classes)

Films and Dramatic Literature depict a wide variety of human action and experience, both elevated and base, physical and psychological, sexual and non-sexual, etc. Our department does not censor the subject matter of dramatic works. Students with concerns about exposure to the full range of dramatic content and style theatre and film are urged to discuss these with their instructor prior to registration.

Regardless of content Theatre and Film are communal art forms in which a number of interdependent artists and crafts people co-operate to create works of art. This is reflected in the learning situation in many of our Department's courses. Consequently, it is policy that students are required to: complete homework, papers, readings, script analysis, production plots, design drawings, etc.; attend meetings, rehearsals and labs both within and outside of class times; and generally participate communally to exhibit commitment towards the inevitably shared endeavours of our field of study.

Students failing these requirements interrupt and impede the progress of others and may, after due warning, be asked to withdraw from any Departmental course
