COURSE DESCRIPTION

In the First Quarter the work will concentrate on mask-based approaches to character creation, balanced with the further development of text based analysis skills, focusing on "acting THROUGH the word". The Second Quarter will be the rehearsal and performance of a production directed by the instructor, employing the techniques developed in the first quarter. The Third Quarter will involve the deepening of acting skills, audition technique and analysis building further on the work begun in the First Quarter. The Fourth Quarter will be the rehearsal and performance of a production with a guest director.

This course focuses on the development of acting skills and techniques in a performance context involving particular historical styles and/or theatrical genres. The course emphasizes the skills and techniques required to meet the stylistic and character demands of a range of scripts and monologues. In addition to workshops, students participate in the rehearsal and performance of two full-length productions.

Collaboration, commitment, curiosity, and effective communication are the foundations of this course. Students are required to bring a notebook and pencil to all classes and rehearsals. Communication for this course will happen via e-mail. During the rehearsal period, students MUST check their e-mail every morning and evening.

FALL TERM: First Quarter (September 5 - October 19, 2018) - Instructor: Christopher Brauer

The actor's body is her/his main means of communication onstage. In the first term of the capstone course of the Honours Acting concentration, the focus will be on developing approaches to character embodiment that integrate and support the training from previous acting, voice and movement classes. The intent is to develop the student's "dilated" body, and will use techniques from the world of Shakespeare, clown, neutral mask and character mask to do so. Acting is also about choices and so the development of analytical skills and the ability to make accurate and compelling artistic decisions will be addressed throughout rehearsals and exercises. Rehearsal is a process of exploration, and each creative project will be an exercise in making and testing artistic choices. As with all performing arts, practice is an essential ingredient and so the course will spend a substantial portion of time on the application of technique.

Auditions for the Q2 production will be held on Monday September 17, from 5-8pm.

2nd Quarter (October 22 - December 3, 2018) - Director: Christopher Brauer

In the second quarter, students will rehearse and perform a public production of Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream, employing the techniques developed in the first quarter. Through the process we will pay special attention not only to the development and performance of the complex text of the play, but also to the actor's responsibilities in rehearsal: preparedness (doing your actor's homework), etiquette, professional demeanor, collaboration/contribution to the work, listening/ability to take direction, commitment to the process, self-pacing, and the ongoing struggle for growth in your work. The performances will be as much an opportunity to demonstrate the results of your endeavours in these areas as it is a venue to demonstrate your talents.

The rehearsal process will be VERY intensive and VERY time-consuming. Once rehearsals move into the Gas Station Theatre, students will be expected to be available on weekends as well as evenings.

Winter Term: 3rd Quarter (Jan 7 - Feb 15, 2019) - Instructor: Tom Soares

Course Work will involve intensive scene study in the Realism style, to prepare students for work on the final production. This will include emphasis on script analysis and scoring your script. Additionally, there will be significant focus on the art and craft of the audition. Students will prepare and perform one or two monologues before a panel of instructors, directors and actors. There will be considerable attention paid to the issues of character development, making contact and working spontaneously off the partner in both the scene and monologue work, as well as the continued integration of craft and creativity. The integration of movement, voice and acting as it applies to varied and embodied action and expression will be explored in all of the performance assignments this quarter. Students will be expected to rehearse outside of class for their scenes and monologues. They will also meet with the instructor outside of class for extra rehearsals.

4th Quarter (Feb 25 - Apr 6, 2019) - Guest Director: Ann Hodges

Rehearsal and presentation of a full-length play in the realism style. The rehearsal process will be VERY intensive and VERY time-consuming. Once rehearsals move into the Gas Station Theatre, students will be expected to be available on weekends as well as evenings.

The program of studies for Acting IV: Honours will include the following:

- 1. Three hours a week of voice workshops throughout the course.
- 2. Six hours a week of general acting workshops and scene work in the 1st, and 3rd Quarters of the course plus additional invited group and individual work.
- 3. Full participation in rehearsals and presentation of a full-length play in the 2nd and 4th quarters, to be staged as a public exercise.
- 4. Preparatory work outside of class and rehearsals, to be conducted in accordance with the discipline and responsibility appropriate to the profession of the actor. Students should be prepared to allocate 4-6 hours to the course outside of class time on a weekly basis.

- 5. Continuation of a program of reading in the literature of acting to gain insight into the problems encountered in the practical work of the course.
- 6. Assumption of responsibility for one's own advancement in insight and technique, including keeping personal notes on homework and critiques offered, and keeping a journal to make that assumption more coherent and effective.

This will require a minimum of 4-8 hours per week outside of class time. Any student unable or unwilling to meet the above requirements is asked to withdraw from the course immediately.

Where possible, schedules will be posted in advance. There will be times when only 24-hours' notice will be provided. Actors must be available to be called during the scheduled rehearsal times.

Schedules are fluid things and are often required to change as a result of unforeseen circumstance – be prepared for schedule changes. As in any professional process, actors will be expected to be a minimum of 5 minutes early for ALL calls and ready to begin at the appointed time.

Lateness and absence will not be tolerated. Should inadvertent lateness be unavoidable, students MUST telephone and notify the Stage Manager.

ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENT

This class involves physical, cognitive, and/or vocal demands. Those with challenges in these areas must seek departmental guidance PRIOR to registration: 204-786-9955 or theatre@uwinnipeg.ca.

ATTENDANCE AND LATENESS (for 2nd-through 4th-year Performance classes)

Given that this is a practical studio course, extensive participation and professionalism are required. As a result, punctuality and attendance at class and at out-of-class rehearsals are of the utmost importance. Unexcused absences from lectures, labs, or rehearsals will be penalized at a rate of 2% per instance. Unexcused lateness for lectures, labs, or rehearsals will be penalized at a rate of 1% per instance. Attendance and punctuality will be recorded at the beginning of every class. After a <a href="https://doi.org/10.1001/jhttps://do

In performance courses in which casts rehearse a show, unexcused lateness and absence will not be tolerated and may result in the recasting of your role after ONE incident.

Excused absences or lates require a medical note or prior arrangement with the instructor. It is at the instructor's discretion whether or not to excuse a non-medical absence. After FIVE excused absences the student will be required to meet with the Instructor to discuss whether it is realistic for him/her to continue in the course.

Given the rigorous, practical nature of studio courses, and the demands these courses make in terms of attendance and punctuality, students with chronic medical conditions that require extensive absence should meet with the instructor at the beginning of the term to discuss whether the course is appropriate for them.

NOTES FOR PERFORMANCE COURSES

Rehearsals for final presentations and public exercises are scheduled well in advance; students must arrange their university and work schedules so as not to conflict with them. Students must attend ALL scheduled rehearsals.

Any student who repeatedly misses rehearsals, comes late, or fails to rehearse adequately will be asked to withdraw from the course (see Attendance note, above).

As many of our classes are physical in nature, students are asked to wear comfortable clothing.

We suggest you bring suitable dance shoes or slippers to wear in class. Your professors will monitor and enforce this regulation in order to preserve the integrity of the special flooring in these rooms. Please respect this rule.

Student actors, like professionals, are expected to provide their own basic makeup supplies where required for public exercises. Due to the potential for the transmission of skin diseases it is not recommended that students share makeup.

Senior acting students scheduled to perform in a departmental public exercise are asked not to modify their hair colour or style without first checking with the instructor/director.

Students who bring props, costumes, or furnishings to support scene presentations please note:

- the University will NOT be responsible for the loss of any such materials;
- students are responsible for the IMMEDIATE removal of such materials after EACH use the department does not provide storage;
- materials not claimed WILL BE DISPOSED OF at the student's expense. Grades may be withheld until such costs are recovered;
- students MUST NOT move existing furnishings from their current locations.

2018 ORIENTATION ASSEMBLY

Each year in September we hold an Orientation Assembly to welcome students to the new term, introduce our new students to faculty and other students; provide information about the department, its various activities and those of its professors; and deliver news about what's coming up. This year our Orientation Assembly will be held on Monday, September 10, 2018, 12:30-13:20 in Theatre, 1T15. ATTENDANCE IS COMPULSORY for all Majors and Honours students. All students enrolled in at least one theatre or film class are automatically members of TAFSA, the Theatre and Film Students' Association, which plans a number of exciting activities each academic year. We are looking forward to regular Performance Jams and Socials as well as DioFest (a new play festival featuring student written and produced plays), and the very popular 24/7 Event during which students move into our building and several plays are written, rehearsed, produced, and presented – all in a period of 24 hours! Please join TAFSA to find out more at its organizational meeting, tentatively scheduled for Mon Sept 17, 12:30-1:20 pm, Room 0T10. This is a great opportunity for students to connect with other likeminded people and a way to get involved in the department events.

It is the student's responsibility to retain a photocopy or computer disk copy of ALL assignments submitted for grading; in the event of loss or theft, a duplicate copy is required.

Students are strongly advised to read the sections 8, 9, and 10 of the Academic Calendar for information on Academic Misconduct including plagiarism, and Appeals, (found on-line at: http://www.uwinnipeg.ca/academics/calendar/docs/regulationsandpolicies.pdf).

Students conducting research interviews, focus groups, surveys, or any other method of collecting data from any person, including a family member, must obtain the approval of the appropriate ethics committee before commencing data collection. Exceptions are research activities in class as a learning exercise. See http://www.uwinnipeg.ca/research/human-ethics.html for submission requirements and deadlines.

All students, faculty and staff have the right to participate, learn and work in an environment that is free of harassment and discrimination. The UW Respectful Working and Learning Environment Policy may be found online at www.uwinnipeg.ca/respect.

Students may choose not to attend classes or write examinations on holy days of their religion, but they must notify their instructors at least two weeks in advance. Instructors will then provide opportunity for students to make up work examinations without penalty. A list of religious holidays can be found at http://uwinnipeg.ca/academics/calendar/docs/important-notes.pdf

When it is necessary to cancel a class due to exceptional circumstances, instructors will make every effort to inform students via uwinnipeg email (and/or using the preferred form of communication, as designated by the instructor), as well as the Departmental Assistant and Chair/Dean so that class cancellation forms can be posted outside classrooms. Students are reminded that they have a responsibility to regularly check their uwinnipeg e-mail addresses to ensure timely receipt of correspondence from the university and/or their course instructors.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2019 is the final date to withdraw without academic penalty from courses which begin September 4, 2018 and end April 5, 2019 (2018-19 Fall/Winter Term).

Please note that withdrawing before the VW date does not necessarily result in a fee refund.

STUDENT PARTICIPATION POLICY

Theatre is a communal art form in which a number of interdependent artists and crafts people co-operate to create a work of art. This fact is necessarily transferred to the learning situation, and is reflected in many of the Department's courses. Consequently, it is the Department's policy that students are required to: complete homework such as reading, line-learning, script analysis, prop lists, design drawings, etc.; attend classes; attend rehearsals both within and outside of class times; and, in short, to exhibit commitment towards the inevitably shared endeavours of our field of study.

Any student failing to fulfil these requirements is harmful to the progress of dedicated students and may, after due warning, be asked to withdraw from any individual Departmental course.

COURSE CONTENT NOTE

All Theatre and Film Classes

Dramatic Literature depicts a wide variety of human action, both elevated and base, public and private, physical and psychological, sexual and non-sexual, etc. The Department of Theatre and Film will not undertake to censor the subject matter of dramatic works.

Students who have concerns about dealing with the full range of content and style in drama/film are urged to discuss these concerns with the course instructor.

Performance-Related Classes

Much of an actor's work is based upon actual experiences of life which become translated into fictional circumstances. Because of this, the teaching of acting may involve encouraging the student to examine personal and even intimate areas of life to help him or her access life experiences appropriate to the demands of the work.

Dramatic literature depicts a wide range of human actions, both elevated and base, public and private, physical and psychological, sexual and non-sexual, etc. Acting students must learn to simulate life truthfully in interaction with other students in the safety of the acting class and the rehearsal hall through exercises, discussions, and directions which address rather than avoid truthful, particularized, personalized action.

Performance classes often require strenuous physical activity. Classes may also involve physical interaction between students as part of class exercises or character development and occasional physical contact by instructors for purposes such as the demonstration of a technique or to make a posture correction. Students are responsible for wearing clothing appropriate to these activities.

Students who have concerns about dealing with the full range of actions and subject matter involved in drama are urged to discuss these concerns with their course instructor.
