COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course further develops the work of THFM-2101 Acting Theory and Practice and endeavours to help the actor reveal and develop their unique expression. Students will engage in improvisation, dramaturgical research and traditional text analysis to encourage a full-range of physical and emotional expression. Students will undertake a detailed and practical examination of the actor's intellectual, sensual, emotional, and imaginative resources as they apply to the development of character, scene work, and a staged production.

Topics to be covered include:

- improvisation
- taking direction
- scene work
- script analysis
- developing character arc or progression
- bringing truth to the work
- using the environment
- harnessing imagination to enrich the performance
- embodying the character and the scene
- working with the director/fellow actors
- understanding process and protocol
- experiencing a script from page to stage

During both terms students will be required to take part in continuous, ongoing exercises and rehearsals with classmates outside of class time. This requirement will involve a minimum of four hours per week preparatory work outside of class and rehearsal will be conducted in accordance with the discipline and responsibility appropriate to the profession of the actor.

PREPARATION AND PROTOCOL

The standards of the profession are expected in terms of discipline and commitment. This means that everyone must arrive on time (which means early) and be prepared mentally, emotionally, and physically to begin work immediately. Teacher and students are responsible for a creative, supportive, and protective atmosphere in order to best serve the work. While the work in class may be exciting at times, students are reminded that respect for the work, fellow students, and the instructor is always expected. Socializing before and after classes or rehearsals and performances is part of the actor’s etiquette, but quiet, listening, focus, and attention during classes, rehearsals, and presentations are absolutely necessary. Students unable to comply will be asked to withdraw from the course. Students are strongly encouraged to speak with the instructor immediately if any concerns arise about activities or climate associated with the class.

There is no food allowed in the classroom. Beverages are allowed (water, coffee, tea, juice). Students are required to keep the room clean and put away all props/rehearsal items used.

Phones are off and away during class. Notes must be taken with paper and pen.

FINAL PROJECT

The Final Project will involve a public presentation. All students must be available for some additional evening rehearsals and rehearsals scheduled outside of normal class time. These rehearsals are compulsory.

CONVERSION SCALE

For the calculation of the final grade the following conversion table will be used:

A+	90 – 100%	GPA 4.5	C+	65 – 69.9%	GPA 2.5
A	85 – 89.9%	GPA 4.25	C	60 – 64.9%	GPA 2.0
A-	80 – 84.9%	GPA 4.0	D	50 – 59.9%	GPA 1.0
B+	75 – 79.9%	GPA 3.5	F	below 50%	GPA 0
B	70 – 74.9%	GPA 3.0

Work not submitted will be graded as 0%.

CLASS PARTICIPATION

My hope is that everyone will come to class ready and willing to participate actively in class, group discussions, and exercises. Your attendance and active participation in sessions involving class presentations is especially appreciated and will be reflected in your participation grade. You are invited to submit a one-page self-assessment using the following criteria at the end of the course to help me make a fair determination of your mark:

Excellent (A range – 17-20): Contribute to almost every class discussion, active participation in all class exercises, and attentive listening. Offer questions and comments that generate discussion. Know the readings very well and reflect on the issues they raise. Make connections between readings and class exercises. All assignments submitted on time.

Good to very good (B range – 14-16): Same as “excellent” but less consistently.

Average (C range – 12-13): Speak up regularly but mainly offer points from the readings without your own insights. Generally demonstrate knowledge and comprehension of concepts but don’t connect concepts to your experiences. Most assignments submitted on time and participation in class exercises is mostly consistent.

Fair (D range – 10-11): Offer your own opinion without much connection to the readings. It's hard to tell if you have actually done the readings. Few assignments submitted on time. Thoughtful participation in class exercises is sporadic.

Not satisfactory (F range - 0 to 9): Highly unlikely unless you don’t do the readings, don’t submit assignments on time, and don’t contribute to class discussion and exercises.

There is no penalty for shyness. While participation is valued, many people (myself included) are perfectly happy to talk when performing a teacher role but much less vocal when occupying a student role. Students who speak seldom in the large group can still earn a top participation mark by contributing actively to small group discussions and being active participants in class exercise. If you are by nature very reserved, with the result that you rarely speak in class, you can still make valuable contributions to the course by bringing in resources and participating in small-group discussion and exercises. I will ask students to submit a self-assessment to assist with my determination of this mark.

Note: Permission to distribute this rubric was granted by Catherine Taylor from the Faculty of Education and Dept. of Rhetoric and Communications

HEALTH AND ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES

Life happens to everyone. If you are experiencing a crisis in your life, or if you have a physical or mental health issue, communicate with your Professor or Accessibility Services – let us know so we can provide support or direct you to those who can. The earlier we know, the earlier we can discuss what resources might be available. Students with documented disabilities, or temporary or chronic medical conditions requiring academic accommodations for tests/exams/presentations (e.g., private space or more time) or during lectures/labs (e.g., note-takers) are encouraged to contact Accessibility Services (AS) at 204-786-9771 or accessibilityservices@uwinnipeg.ca to discuss appropriate options. All information about a student's disability or medical condition remains confidential. If you are registered with Accessibility Services, do not assume that Accessibility Services (AS) has informed your instructor that you have registered with them. Please see <http://www.uwinnipeg.ca/accessibility>. If you do not register with AS, you cannot be granted special consideration (e.g. extra time to write exams/tests, attendance issues because of physical or mental health conditions, etc.).

The University of Winnipeg promotes a scent-free environment. Please be respectful of the needs of your fellow classmates and your instructor by avoiding the use of scented products while attending lectures. Exposure to perfumes and other scented products (such as lotion) can trigger serious health reactions in persons with asthma, allergies, migraines or chemical sensitivities. We are asking for your cooperation to create a scent-free environment on campus by students, faculty and staff.

ATTENDANCE AND LATENESS (for 2nd- through 4th-year Performance classes)

Given that this is a practical studio course, extensive participation and professionalism are required. As a result, punctuality and attendance at class and at out-of-class rehearsals are of the utmost importance.

- Unexcused absences from lectures, labs, or rehearsals will be penalized at a rate of 2% per instance.
- Unexcused lateness for lectures, labs, or rehearsals will be penalized at a rate of 1% per instance.
- Attendance and punctuality will be recorded at the beginning of every class.
- After a THIRD late or absence, the instructor will schedule a meeting with the student to discuss withdrawal from the course.
- After a FIFTH unexcused absence the student will be required to meet with the Chair of the department to discuss withdrawal from the course.
- In performance courses in which casts rehearse a show, unexcused lateness and absence will not be tolerated and may result in the recasting of your role after ONE incident.
- Excused absences or lates require a medical note or prior arrangement with the instructor. It is at the instructor's discretion whether or not to excuse a non-medical absence.
- After FIVE excused absences the student will be required to meet with the Instructor to discuss whether it is realistic for him/her to continue in the course.

Given the rigorous, practical nature of studio courses, and the demands these courses make in terms of attendance and punctuality, students with chronic medical conditions that require extensive absence should meet with the instructor at the beginning of the term to discuss whether the course is appropriate for them.

"THE REAL THING" LECTURE SERIES

The Department of Theatre and Film presents a series of six lectures which will be held on Wednesdays during the free period (12:30-13:20) in Theatre 1T15. Please note the dates in your diary NOW:

September 18th (Yvette Nolan, playwright/director/author/arts administrator)
 October 30th
 November 13th
 January 22nd
 February 12th
 March 4th

This series will feature speakers from a range of areas in the performing arts: technical, performance, design, management, film, directing, playwriting, etc. These speakers will specifically address issues related to "the business of the business."

Attendance at ALL lectures is MANDATORY for ALL Honours students in Theatre (4000-level courses, all areas), as well as students in: THFM-3101 Acting III: General, THFM-3201 Styles in Design, and THFM-3801 Production II. Penalties for absence may be assigned by individual instructors.

Attendance for potential Theatre Honours/Majors and for Film Majors is optional but highly recommended.

NOTES FOR PERFORMANCE COURSES

- Rehearsals for final presentations and public exercises are scheduled well in advance; students must arrange their university and work schedules so as not to conflict with them. Students must attend ALL scheduled rehearsals.
- Any student who repeatedly misses rehearsals, comes late, or fails to rehearse adequately will be asked to withdraw from the course (see Attendance note, above).
- As many of our classes are physical in nature, students are asked to wear comfortable clothing.
- Outdoor footwear must be removed before entering ANY of the Studios: 0T09 (Concourse Studio), 0T19 (Mime Lab), 1T15 (Theatre), 2T05 (2nd Floor Studio), 2T15 (Movement Studio). We suggest you bring suitable dance shoes or slippers to wear in class. Your professors will monitor and enforce this regulation in order to preserve the integrity of the special flooring in these rooms. Please respect this rule.
- Student actors, like professionals, are expected to provide their own basic makeup supplies where required for public exercises. Due to the potential for the transmission of skin diseases it is not recommended that students share makeup.
- Senior acting students scheduled to perform in a departmental public exercise are asked not to modify their hair colour or style without first checking with the instructor/director.
- Students who bring props, costumes, or furnishings to support scene presentations please note:
 - the University will NOT be responsible for the loss of any such materials;

2019 ORIENTATION ASSEMBLY

Each year in September we hold an Orientation Assembly to welcome students to the new term, introduce our new students to faculty and other students; provide information about the department, its various activities and those of its professors; and deliver news about what's coming up. This year our Orientation Assembly will be held on Wednesday, September 11th, 2019, 12:30-13:20 in Theatre, 1T15. ATTENDANCE IS COMPULSORY for all Majors and Honours students. Those considering Honours are strongly recommended to attend. All others are welcome and encouraged to attend.

TAFSA

All students enrolled in at least one theatre or film class are automatically members of TAFSA, the Theatre and Film Students' Association, which plans a number of exciting activities each academic year. Activities organized by TAFSA include regular Performance Jams, Department parties and Socials as well as DioFest (a new play festival featuring student written and produced plays), and 24/7 (an event in which students move into our building and several plays are written, rehearsed, produced, and presented – all in a period of 24 hours!).

Please join TAFSA to find out more at its organizational meeting, tentatively scheduled for Mon Sept 16th, 12:30-13:20 pm, Room OT10. This is a great opportunity for students to connect with other like-minded people and a way to get involved in the department events.

BUILDING SECURITY

The Asper Centre for Theatre and Film (home to the Department of Theatre and Film) is open from 8:00 am to 5:30 pm weekdays only. Students are permitted to be in the building between 8:00 am and 10:00 pm seven days per week (except statutory holidays when the University is closed) BUT PLEASE NOTE: outside of regular building hours, it is MANDATORY that everyone in the building EITHER carry an access card OR have a booking confirmation form in their possession (hard copy or electronic). ALL EVENING STUDENTS in the building for classes MUST have an access card. If a Security Guard checks and you do not have proper accreditation, you may be evicted.

- Misuse of Filesharing Sites. Uploading essays and other assignments to essay vendor or trader sites (filesharing sites that are known providers of essays for use by others who submit them to instructors as their own work) involves "aiding and abetting" plagiarism. STUDENT PARTICIPATION POLICY & COURSE CONTENT NOTE (Performance-Related Classes)

Theatre is a communal art form in which a number of interdependent artists and crafts people co-operate to create a work of art. This fact is necessarily transferred to the learning situation, and is reflected in many of the Department's courses. Consequently, it is the Department's policy that students are required to: complete homework such as reading, line-learning, script analysis, prop lists, design drawings, etc.; attend classes; attend rehearsals both within and outside of class times; and, in short, to exhibit commitment towards the inevitably shared endeavours of our field of study.

Any student failing to fulfil these requirements is harmful to the progress of dedicated students and may, after due warning, be asked to withdraw from any individual Departmental course.

COURSE CONTENT NOTE

Dramatic literature depicts a wide range of human actions, both elevated and base, public and private, physical and psychological, sexual and non-sexual, etc. Acting students must learn to simulate life truthfully in interaction with other students in the safety of the acting class and the rehearsal hall through exercises, discussions, and directions which address rather than avoid truthful, particularized, personalized action.

Much of an actor's work is based upon actual experiences of life which become translated into fictional circumstances. Because of this, the teaching of acting may involve encouraging the student to examine personal and even intimate areas of life to help him or her access life experiences appropriate to the demands of the work.

Performance classes often require strenuous physical activity. Classes may also involve physical interaction between students as part of class exercises or character development and occasional physical contact by instructors for purposes such as the demonstration of a technique or to make a posture correction. Students are responsible for wearing clothing appropriate to these activities.

Students who have concerns about dealing with the full range of actions and subject matter involved in drama are urged to discuss these concerns with their course instructor.
