

THFM-2601-051 (3 credit hours)

INTRODUCTION TO COSTUMING

Winter: 2021
Tuesday: 6:00-9:00 pm
Delivery: Live Zoom

Instructor: Heather M. Meiklejohn
E-Mail: h.meiklejohn@uwinnipeg.ca
Zoom Office Hours: by appointment

PRE-REQUISITES

Fundamentals of hand and machine sewing are covered in this course; however, it is highly recommended that the student have some knowledge of, and experience with, garment construction as students will be required to complete course work outside of class hours.

Access to a sewing machine is mandatory. Arrangements may be made with the Department of Theatre & Film to use one of the department's sewing machines, in their home, for the duration of the term.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to:

1. Provide an introduction to the role of the costumer in theatrical productions; and,
2. Develop fundamental skills required as a costumer.

This course explores components of costume design, offering a discourse on design language, colour theory, structure, and decoration as they relate to costumes for theatre. Instruction will include an overview of the steps necessary to take a costume from designer's sketch to completed ensemble ready for the stage. Specifics of the material covered will depend to some extent on the ability of the students. Likely topics will include: use of tools and equipment; hand and machine sewing techniques; fabric identification; garment construction; taking measurements and costume fitting; sketch analysis; working with commercial patterns and pattern drafting; shopping and budgetary control; and, theatre etiquette. Students will demonstrate their proficiency with hand and machine sewing by completing a number of projects. Guest speakers working within the industry are a possibility.

COURSE DELIVERY

This course is delivered through synchronous instruction via Zoom. Students will require reliable access to the internet. The class will meet as a group every Tuesday, 6:00-9:00 pm from 12, January through to 6, April, exclusive of Winter Term Reading Week, for a lecture and group discussion. The Zoom meetings are mandatory. As this course is a simulation of an actual costume shop where collaborative work is the norm, students' attendance and participation is required. Please do not turn off your video view during class/discussion time. Weekly assignments will be presented in class. Arrangements will be made by the instructor to personally view students' Stitch Portfolio, commercial pattern project, and drafted pattern final project.

REQUIRED TEXTS

Costume Construction by Katherine Strand-Evans, 2nd ed. (required)
Any basic hand and machine sewing instruction book. (recommended)

SUPPLIES

Basic hand and machine sewing equipment (to be discussed in class)
 Fabric, paper & related misc. supplies (to be discussed in class)
 Sewing machine (Students may make arrangements with the Department of Theatre & Film to use one of the department's sewing machines, in their home, for the duration of the term.)

EVALUATION

Assignment #1: Stitch Portfolio (due Tuesday 9, Feb)	20%
Assignment #2: Commercial Pattern Project (due Tuesday 2, Mar).....	25%
Assignment #3: Drafted Pattern Final Project (due Tuesday 30, Mar)	30%
Participation (includes class attendance/weekly projects/in-class quizzes) 	25%

TOTAL	100%

NOTE REGARDING PARTICIPATION

Projects/exercises will be assigned every class. As knowledge gained from one class forms the bases of the following class, all projects/exercises must be completed by the start of the following class. Failure to complete each weekly project/exercise will result in the loss of 2 points from your participation grade.

Please note that class starts at 6:00 pm and ends at 9:00 pm. Failure to arrive on time or departing early, will result in the loss of 1 point from your participation grade for each instance, and a loss of five points for each instance of a missed classed. Late arrival and early departure of more than 10 minutes will count as a missed class.

In an ideal world, the instructor would strictly adhere to the above requirements. But then along came Covid . . .

Within the new world order, participation will be evaluated based on attendance and prompt arrival (or timely and thorough communication when the current COVID situation makes this impossible), demonstrated preparation for class, positive contribution to discussion, and committed engagement in exercises and projects. The instructor will work with students if frequent absenteeism or lateness becomes disruptive and explore solutions if the challenges are due to the limitations of remote learning. However, failure to meet reasonable standards of responsible behavior in relation to classmates and instructors will not be tolerated.

CONVERSION SCALE

For the calculation of the final grade the following conversion table will be used:

A+	90 – 100%	GPA	4.5	C+	65 – 69.9%	GPA	2.5
A	85 – 89.9%	GPA	4.25	C	60 – 64.9%	GPA	2.0
A-	80 – 84.9%	GPA	4.0	D	50 – 59.9%	GPA	1.0
B+	75 – 79.9%	GPA	3.5	F	below 50%	GPA	0
B	70 – 74.9%	GPA	3.0

Work not submitted will be graded as 0%.

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE

Pace of class schedule is contingent on the ability of the students. Tentatively, weeks 1-4 are spent reviewing/evaluating/executing general principles of costuming; the final weeks of the term focus on commercial pattern construction, pattern drafting and garment construction. Guest speakers working within the industry are a possibility; dates and times TBA.

The course will comprise one lecture followed by class discussion, delivered by Zoom, Tuesdays, 6:00-9:00 pm.. All weekly assignments must be completed by the start of class the following week as the previous class forms the foundation of the following class. Students will have to complete projects outside of class time.

Assignment #1: Stitch Portfolio (due Tuesday 9, Feb) **

Assignment #2: Commercial Pattern Project (due Tuesday 2, Mar) **

Assignment #3: Drafted Pattern Final Project (due Tuesday 30, Mar) **

Weekly class projects/exercises/participation/in-class quizzes (on-going throughout the term)

STUDENT PARTICIPATION POLICY & COURSE CONTENT

Theatre & Film are communal art forms in which a number of interdependent artists and crafts people co-operate to create a work of art. This fact is necessarily transferred to the learning situation, and is reflected in many of the Department's courses. Consequently, it is the Department's policy that students are required to: complete homework such as reading, line-learning, script analysis, prop lists, design drawings, etc.; attend classes; attend rehearsals, meetings or shoots both within and outside of class times; and, in short, exhibit commitment towards the inevitably shared endeavours of our field of study.

Any student failing to fulfil these requirements is harmful to the progress of dedicated students and may, after due warning, be asked to withdraw from any individual Departmental course.

COURSE CONTENT NOTE

Dramatic Literature depicts a wide variety of human action, both elevated and base, public and private, physical and psychological, sexual and non-sexual, etc. The Department of Theatre and Film will not undertake to censor the subject matter of dramatic works.

Students who have concerns about dealing with the full range of content and style in drama/film are urged to discuss these concerns with the course instructor.

HEALTH AND ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES

Life happens to everyone. If you are experiencing a crisis in your life, or if you have a physical or mental health issue, communicate with your Professor or Accessibility Services – let us know so we can provide support or direct you to those who can. The earlier we know, the earlier we can discuss what resources might be available. Students with documented disabilities, or temporary or chronic medical conditions requiring academic accommodations for tests/exams/presentations (e.g., private space or more time) or during lectures/labs (e.g., note-takers) are encouraged to contact Accessibility Services (AS) at 204-786-9771 or accessibilityservices@uwinnipeg.ca to discuss appropriate options. All information about a student's disability or medical condition remains confidential. If you are registered with Accessibility Services, do not assume that Accessibility Services (AS) has informed your instructor that you have registered with them. Please see <http://www.uwinnipeg.ca/accessibility>. If you do not register with AS, you cannot be granted special consideration (e.g. extra time to write exams/tests, attendance issues because of physical or mental health conditions, etc.).

The University of Winnipeg promotes a scent-free environment. Please be respectful of the needs of your fellow classmates and your instructor by avoiding the use of scented products while attending on-campus lectures and labs. Exposure to perfumes and other scented products (such as lotion) can trigger serious health reactions in persons with asthma, allergies, migraines or chemical sensitivities. We are asking for your cooperation to create a scent-free environment on campus by students, faculty and staff.

"THE REAL THING" LECTURE SERIES

Normally, during the FW terms, the Department of Theatre and Film presents a series of lectures held on Wednesdays during the free period (12:30-13:20). This series will feature speakers from a range of areas in the performing arts: technical, performance, design, management, film, directing, playwriting, etc. These speakers will specifically address issues related to "the business of the business," and attendance is compulsory for some courses (for example, all Honours level students must attend). This year, the series has been somewhat truncated. One lecture took place by Zoom in September, and further lectures may be added in the winter term online (by Zoom or other platform). Watch our website for information on further lectures as they are planned.

ORIENTATION ASSEMBLY

Each year in September we hold an Orientation Assembly to welcome students to the new term; introduce our new students to faculty and other students; provide information about the department, its various activities and those of its professors; and deliver news about what's coming up. Those considering Honours are strongly recommended to attend. All others are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Our Orientation Assembly took place by Zoom in September. Occasionally during the year, other Town Hall type Department-wide meetings may be called; check our website for information as new meetings are planned.

TAFSA

All students enrolled in at least one theatre or film class are automatically members of TAFSA, the Theatre and Film Students' Association, which plans a number of exciting activities each academic year. Activities organized by TAFSA include regular Performance Jams, Department parties and Socials as well as DioFest (a new play festival featuring student written and produced plays), and 24/7 (an event in which students move into our building and several plays are written, rehearsed, produced, and presented – all in a period of 24 hours!).

Please join TAFSA to find out more at their meetings, every second Monday from 12:30-13:20 pm (by Zoom or other platform in 2020-21). Follow TAFSA at @tfsauw on Instagram. This is a great opportunity for students to connect with other like-minded people and a way to get involved in the department events.

BUILDING SECURITY

To safeguard the health of the UWinnipeg community — and support public health efforts — during the ongoing COVID-19 situation, the UW campus is closed until further notice. All academic instruction and evaluation will continue through alternate delivery.

The Asper Centre for Theatre and Film (home to the Department of Theatre and Film) is CLOSED as per Campus policy. Access for students attending in-person labs in our building will be arranged as necessary. All studios and labs are locked 24/7.

NOTE: It is MANDATORY that anyone attending labs or rehearsals in the building carry an ID card/student card to verify they are allowed to be on campus. If a Security Guard checks and you do not have proper accreditation, you will be evicted.

These rules are in place to protect our students and our equipment; please respect them.

RECORDING ON-LINE CLASSES

The instructor may choose to record a zoom or video class if there are online connectivity issues, absences, or to post to Nexus for later review.

If a lecture is recorded, students will be given notice (via the course outline or on a case-by-case basis) that their personal information may be captured; informed of how long the recording will be retained; and whether the recording will be used for evaluation of any kind. Students will also be given the option to turn off their cameras/microphones and use pseudonyms to remain anonymous (except where class participation is required).

Students with concerns or who wish to seek alternate arrangements may discuss the matter with the instructor.

Access to recordings will be limited to the academic staff, students, and others with a legitimate need. Recordings containing student personal information will not be posted publicly, but only on UW-approved servers.

No student is allowed to disseminate recordings outside of the class or post recordings publicly. Access to the recordings will be limited to the instructor and the students.

ELECTRONIC COURSE OUTLINE ADDENDA

Students must check our website at <http://uwinnipeg.ca/theatre-film> and read the menu items called Fire Safety Instructions in the Asper Centre for Theatre and Film and Access Card/Building Use Policy.

Room bookings at the ACTF are suspended until at least December 31, 2020 and possibly longer. However, when we are able to allow students to book rooms again, links to Room Booking Instructions and electronic Online Room Booking Form can also be found on our department website. Please read and note all instructions carefully.

GENERAL NOTES

- Students can find answers to frequently ask questions related to remote learning here: <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/covid-19/remote-learning-faq.html>.
- Students should check their UWinnipeg e-mail addresses daily as this is the most direct way instructors and the University will contact students, particularly during the current remote learning environment.
- This course outline should be considered a guideline only. Time constraints and other unforeseen factors may require that some topics be omitted or covered in less detail than indicated.
- Archival records such as videotapes, sound recordings, and photographs may be made or taken during class or lab times. The University uses such materials primarily for archival, promotional, and teaching purposes. Promotional use may include display at open houses or conferences, or use in advertising, publicity, or brochures. In reading and accepting the terms in this course outline, students acknowledge consent for such use by the University. Should a student not wish to convey such consent, they should withdraw from this course immediately.
- Unless necessary for accessing class, cellular phones should be turned off during classes and examinations. Texting is not permitted in class.
- Any student attending a test or final examination may be required to present proof of identity; photo identification is preferred.

It is the student's responsibility to retain a photocopy or computer disk copy of ALL assignments submitted for grading; in the event of loss or theft, a duplicate copy is required.

- When it is necessary to cancel a class due to exceptional circumstances, instructors will make every effort to inform students via uwinnipeg email (and/or using the preferred form of communication, as designated by the instructor), as well as the Departmental Assistant and Chair/Dean. Students are reminded that they have a responsibility to regularly check their UWinnipeg e-mail addresses to ensure timely receipt of correspondence from the university and/or their course instructors.
- Regulations, Policies, and Academic Integrity: Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the “Regulations and Policies” found in the University Academic Calendar at: <https://uwinnipeg.ca/academics/calendar/docs/regulationsandpolicies.pdf>. Particular attention should be given to subsections 8 (“Student Discipline”), 9 (“Senate Appeals”), and 10 (“Grade Appeals”).

Please note the importance of maintaining academic integrity, and the potential consequences of engaging in plagiarism, cheating, and other forms of academic misconduct. Even “unintentional” plagiarism, as described in the UW Library video tutorial “Avoiding Plagiarism” (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UvFdxRU9a8g>) is a form of academic misconduct.

Similarly, uploading essays and other assignments to essay vendor or trader sites (filesharing sites that are known providers of essays for use by others who submit them to instructors as their own work) is a form of misconduct, as it involves “aiding and abetting” plagiarism. More detailed information can be found here: Academic Misconduct Policy and Procedures: <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/institutional-analysis/docs/policies/academic-misconduct-policy.pdf> and <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/institutional-analysis/docs/policies/academic-misconduct-procedures.pdf>.

- Copyright and Intellectual Property. Course materials are the property of the instructor who developed them. Examples of such materials are course outlines, assignment descriptions, lecture notes, notes on whiteboards, test questions, and presentation slides—irrespective of format. Students who upload these materials to filesharing sites, or in any other way share these materials with others outside the class without prior permission of the instructor/presenter, are in violation of copyright law and University policy.

Students must also seek prior permission of the instructor/presenter before, for example, photographing, recording, or taking screenshots of slides, presentations, lectures, and notes on the board. Students found to be in violation of an instructor’s intellectual property rights could face serious consequences pursuant to the Academic Misconduct or Non-Academic Misconduct Policy; such consequences could possibly involve legal sanction under the Copyright Policy (https://copyright.uwinnipeg.ca/docs/copyright_policy_2017.pdf).

- Research Ethics. Students conducting research interviews, focus groups, surveys, or any other method of collecting data from any person, including a family member, must obtain research ethics approval before commencing data collection. Exceptions are research activities done in class as a learning exercise. For submission requirements and deadlines, see <http://www.uwinnipeg.ca/research/human-ethics.html>.
- Privacy. Students should be familiar with their rights in relation to the collecting of personal data by the University (<https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/privacy/admissions-privacy-notice.html>), especially if Zoom is being used for remote teaching (<https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/privacy/zoom-privacy-notice.html>) and testing/proctoring (<https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/privacy/zoom-test-and-exam-proctoring.html>)
- Respectful Learning Environment. All students, faculty and staff have the right to participate, learn and work in an environment that is free of harassment and discrimination. Students are expected to conduct themselves in a respectful manner on campus and in the learning environment irrespective of platform being used.

Behaviour, communication, or acts that are inconsistent with a number of UW policies (e.g., Respectful Working and Learning Environment Policy at <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/respect/respect-policy.html>; Acceptable Use of Information Technology Policy at <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/institutional-analysis/docs/policies/acceptable-use-of-information-technology-policy.pdf>) could be considered “non-academic” misconduct.

More detailed information can be found here:

Non-Academic Misconduct Policy and Procedures: <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/institutional-analysis/docs/student-non-academic-misconduct-policy.pdf>

And <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/institutional-analysis/docs/student-non-academic-misconduct-procedures.pdf>.

- Students may choose not to attend classes or write examinations on holy days of their religion, but they must notify their instructors at least two weeks in advance. Instructors will then provide opportunity for students to make up work examinations without penalty. A list of religious holidays can be found at <http://uwinnipeg.ca/academics/calendar/docs/important-notes.pdf>

The voluntary withdrawal dates for each term, without academic penalty, are:

- FALL TERM COURSES: November 17, 2020 for Fall courses which begin in September 2020 and end in December 2020;
- FALL/WINTER TERM COURSES: February 23, 2021 for Fall/Winter courses which begin in September 2020 and end in April 2021;
- WINTER TERM COURSES: March 16, 2021 for Winter courses which begin in January 2021 and end in April 2021.

Students are encouraged to speak to the Instructor before withdrawing to explore other options.

Please note that withdrawing before the VW date does not necessarily result in a fee refund.
