

Sorry!

This course outline is not yet available for the current year but you can check our Archives page for an earlier version from a previous year at:

<http://www.uwinnipeg.ca/theatre-film/courses/archives.html>

In most cases, outlines from our Archives should provide you with applicable course information.

We are working to publish current outlines as soon as they are available and hope to have most of them approved by the end of July but some may not be available to post until just prior to the start of term.

Text book lists for all courses should be available at the bookstore by mid-August.

We thank you for your patience.
