By Zoom! (info below and on the dept website)

NOLAN BALZER
DACAPO Productions

“VOICE ACTING IN WINNIPEG”

Have you ever played a video game or watched a cartoon and wondered how those voice actors cracked into that field? Well Nolan Balzer, Voice Director for DACAPO Productions will be providing all the info you need to make that happen.

Nolan Balzer has worked as a voice director and audio production engineer with DACAPO Productions since 1998. Nolan casts, directs and records voice actors for Animated Productions, Video Games and English Versioning of live action productions. He has been involved in voicing, recording and producing more than 2000 radio and television commercials as well as recording, producing or performing on over 20 albums during his time with DACAPO.

DACAPO Productions is a creative professional audio production company. They provide audio production services for all applications; from television, radio and film to animation, internet multi-media and video games. They cast and record voice actors, create, source and implement sound effects, compose and license music and provide full audio post, and mixing services.

Students who have declared Theatre/Film as their major or are considering doing so will find this series very valuable and should plan to attend!
