Note: RHET-3236-001 - Additional Course Information: For Orality, we'll begin with folk and fairy tales, and parts of Homer's Odyssey, along with Chris Vogler's The Writer's Journey, and learn about the "Hero's Journey" structure of psychological development in both oral forms and modern movies (Wonder Woman, The Force Awakens, The Last Jedi, Guardians of the Galaxy, etc.). For Literacy, we'll read Neil Postman's Amusing Ourselves to Death, about literate Western personality and then TV's effect on it. For both, we'll read Beryl Markham's West with the Night, a beautiful, modern autobiography with the "Hero's Journey" structure. Is the West restoring balance to its psyche, lost since Greco-Roman civilization?
